Different Visions Of Love Partnership And Dominator Values In Christian History:

Different Visions of Love Brian Griffith, 2008 Griffiths narrative moves like a searchlight over each phase of church history illuminating the visions options and choices behind events He traces the rise of a dominator version of Christianity in which the primary concern was a chain of command to be followed with rewards or punishments according to the degree of obedience And beside this he illuminates another face of Christianity concerned with healing all divisions between loved and unloved people The story Griffith presents is often deeply disturbing as in his unstinting accounts concerning the gospel for women or the age of holy wars and witch hunts But ultimately his story offers solid grounds for optimism He shows that all contention between different religious visions can be a process of building partnership As Griffith points out Jesus himself wished to debate his opponents openly not to silence or eliminate them He was not afraid of real encounter or the potential of creative conflict I want to congratulate Brian Griffith on this masterful controversial and highly readable account His book offers hope in a divided world where reaction against globalized godless corporate secularism meets with a war on religious fundamentalism I hope to see other writers do comparable work in highlighting the partnership and dominator visions within their religious traditions around the world Riane Eisler author of The Chalice the Blade Sacred Pleasure Tomorrows Children The Power of Partnership The Real Wealth of Nations I find it gives me an incredibly clarifying perspective on Christianity way beyond my previous understanding It should be read by everyone with an interest in Western Civilization It is a marvelous companion to The Great Turning David Korten author of The Great Turning From Empire to Earth Community

A Galaxy of Immortal Women Brian Griffith, 2012-05-15 The goddess tradition remakes China and the world

Cover-up Lawrence Goudge, 2012 The Christian church hides a multitude of secrets it is after all a mysterious religion For instance what if Jesus did not start Christianity What if Paul who knew Jesus only through visions created it In Cover Up author and lay minister Lawrence Goudge disputes the Christian theology that has dominated the world for millennia Goudge who has spent more than twenty four years researching the suppressed history of Jesus s Jewish followers demonstrates how the church has corrupted Jesus s message Cover Up takes an innovative and investigative approach to Christianity St Paul s credibility and ways in which theological truths have been concealed for two thousand years Goudge s analysis debunks the myths and provides alternative theories A s hatred and heresy haunt Christianity s shadows this study addresses the intolerant nature of the Christian church and sets out to right the wrongs by bringing the truth about the Nazarenes into the light of day Goudge s message presents hope for a just world

Education, Identity and Women Religious, 1800-1950 Deirdre Raftery, Elizabeth M. Smyth, 2015-10-08 This book brings together the work of eleven leading international scholars to map the contribution of teaching Sisters who provided schooling to hundreds of thousands of children globally from 1800 to 1950 The volume represents research that draws on several theoretical approaches and methodologies It engages with feminist discourses social history oral history visual culture post colonial studies and the

Krieglstein,2021-12-06 This book makes compassionate caring and connectedness the central themes Imbedded in the human psyche we find a deep yearning for connection This book explores the many roadblocks that human beings put in the way of a healthy and respectful dialogue with each other with nature and with the universe It also cites numerous examples from literature philosophy and society of a reawakening sense of connectedness The Chalice and the Blade Riane Tennenhaus Eisler,1987 In prehistorical times Eisler argues women and men lived together in egalitarian communities devoted to nurturance with the imposition of male domination female values gave way to creeds of hierarchy aggression power obedience Eisler a futurist posits a new society based on the recovery of more humane values From Library journal 6 1 85 Friendly Woman ,1990 New Age Journal ,1987

Embracing the Song of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Different Visions Of Love Partnership And Dominator Values In Christian History

In some sort of consumed by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast transmission, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony produced by the published word frequently diminish in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant sound and distractions that permeate our lives. But, situated within the pages of Different Visions Of Love Partnership And Dominator Values In Christian History a stunning literary treasure overflowing with natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an elegant composer of language, that captivating masterpiece conducts readers on a psychological journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden melodies and profound impact resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths with this poignant examination, we can examine the book is key harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
