Jennings, 2010 Nathan G Jennings s captivating study explores the ascetical logic of the various practices that Christians call theology By establishing ascetic practice as coherent within the logic of Christian thought Jennings argues that Christian theology itself as an embodied Christian practice is a type of and participant in Christian asceticism Jennings establishes that the implications of such an understanding of Christian theology can be brought to bear on modern Christian scholarship in profound and transformative ways With engagements and references that span a vast terrain from Patristic authors to modern systematic theologians Theology as Ascetic Act Disciplining Christian Discourse is a significant contribution to both modern Christian thought and the study of asceticism
