his wife Alice Penhallow from The Winning of Lucinda would be mentioned later in Anne of the Island in fact the wedding of Alice Penhallow that Anne mentions she will be attending in chapter XLI of Anne of the Island is the setting for the story The Winning of Lucinda The Penhallow family are also the central characters of Montgomery's later novel A Tangled Web though these Penhallows would appear to be a different branch of the family The majority of stories though are about residents of Avonlea and surrounding towns who are never mentioned in the Anne novels One reason for this is that most of the short stories in this volume were written and published by Montgomery in various magazines before Anne of Green Gables was even conceived With the great success of Anne of Green Gables in 1908 and the sequel Anne of Avonlea in 1909 Montgomery was under pressure from her publisher to deliver more stories about Anne Accordingly she reworked the settings of several previously published non Avonlea stories to incorporate references to Avonlea as well as inserting several references to Anne Shirley and some of the town's other characters The whole was then marketed as a new companion book to the Anne series The book is dedicated To the memory of MRS WILLIAM A HOUSTON a dear friend who has gone beyond WIKIPEDIA
