Conceived in Modernism Aimee Armande Wilson, 2015-12-17 Offers a new perspective on the politics of contraception by showing that Anglo American birth control rhetoric has roots in modernism

Modernism's Queer Parents Anchit Sathi, 2025-12-02 This volume offers the first critical examination of how societal pressures compelling individuals towards parenthood are experienced processed and enacted by queer characters in selected works by Thomas Mann Virginia Woolf and Marcel Proust authors now widely regarded as queer despite not having claimed such an identity in their own time The selected texts include Mann's Chaotic World and Childhood Sorrow and Death in Venice Woolf's Mrs Dalloway and Orlando and key sections from Proust's In Search of Lost Time By engaging these texts in a pairwise dialogue this book argues that Mann Woolf and Proust employ a shared repertoire of motifs and narrative strategies to depict queer characters struggles with the institution of parenthood However it contends that each author articulates a distinct and nuanced approach to this theme shaped in part by the specific cultural contexts in which they wrote To substantiate this argument the monograph draws on insights from queer theory metaphor theory and the social sciences predominantly from late twentieth and early twenty first century scholarship thereby reinforcing its commitment to linking literary modernism to contemporary lived realities At the same time the analysis situates these works within the broader socio historical framework of the early twentieth century which is to say the modernist period with which these authors are conventionally associated

Resistant Reproductions Fran Bigman, 2024-03-29 Resistant Reproductions asks why narratives of pregnancy and abortion emerged in the early twentieth century and what kinds of stories these narratives conveyed Is it only once pregnancy becomes plannable that it becomes a story worth telling Abortion is often considered resistant and feminist while pregnancy is considered domestic and conventional How can readings of literary narratives challenge this reductive binary Resistant Reproductions the first book length study of both pregnancy and abortion in British culture addresses these questions by examining pregnancy narratives including abortion narratives in British fiction and film from 1907 to 1967 Fiction became a way for writers to explore what new possibilities of reproductive control would mean for the individual yet there was also much anxiety about who would have control individuals or the state While exploring intimate personal experiences of pregnancy and abortion Resistant Reproductions also asks how literary narratives used reproductive plots to address political issues of gender class and eugenics

Masculine Pregnancies Aimee Armande Wilson, 2023-12-01 Who is taken seriously as an artist What does gender have to do with it Is there a relationship between artistic creation and physical procreation In Masculine Pregnancies Aimee Armande Wilson argues that modernist writers used depictions of mannish pregnant women and metaphors of male pregnancy to answer these questions The book places masculine pregnancies in works by Djuna Barnes Willa Cather William

Faulkner and Ezra Pound in the context of interwar debates about eugenics immigration midwifery and sexology in order to redefine the relationship between creativity and gender in modernism Attending to recent developments in queer theory Wilson challenges the critical assumption that figures of masculine pregnancy necessarily reinforce oppressive norms The book's first half shows how some writers indeed used such figures to delegitimize artists who were not white male and heterosexual The second half then shows how others used masculine pregnancies to extend legitimacy to mannish women dark skinned immigrants and their pro creations and did so a century before the current boom in queer pregnancy narratives

British Literature in Transition, 1920-1940: Futility and Anarchy Charles Ferrall, Dougal McNeill, 2018-12-20

Literature from the political 1930s has often been read in contrast to the aesthetic 1920s This collection suggests a different approach Drawing on recent work expanding our sense of the political and aesthetic energies of interwar modernisms these chapters track transitions in British literature The strains of national break up class dissension and political instability provoked a new literary order and reading across the two decades between the wars exposes the continuing pressure of these transitions Instead of following familiar markers 1922 the Crash the Spanish Civil War or isolating particular themes from literary study this collection takes key problems and dilemmas from literature in transition and reads them across familiar and unfamiliar cultural works and productions in their rich and contradictory context of publication Themes such as gender sexuality nation and class are thus present throughout these essays Major writers such as Woolf are read alongside forgotten and marginalised voices

Modernist Life Histories Daniel Aureliano Newman, 2018-10-12 Modernist Life

Histories explores how new models of embryonic development helped inspire new kinds of coming of age plots during the first half of the twentieth century The Great War, The Waste Land and the Modernist Long Poem Oliver

Tearle, 2019-04-04 The Great War The Waste Land and the Modernist Long Poem explores how cultural responses to the trauma of the First World War found expression in the form of the modernist long poem Beginning with T S Eliot's The Waste Land Oliver Tearle reads that most famous example of the genre in comparison with lesser known long poems such as Hope Mirrlees's Paris A Poem Richard Aldington's A Fool in the Forest and Nancy Cunard's Parallax As well as presenting a new history of this neglected genre the book examines the ways in which the modernist long poem represented the seminal literary form for grappling with the crises of European modernity in the wake of World War I

Transmodern Cinema and Decolonial Film Theory Robert K. Beshara, 2024-04-04 In this book Robert K Beshara applies decolonial film theory to an analysis of Youssef Chahine's 1997 Al Masir Destiny Transmodern Cinema and Decolonial Film Theory is the first book on decolonial film theory which unpacks key concepts in decoloniality and decolonial aesthetics Decolonial film theory is then applied to Youssef Chahine's 1997 historical drama al Ma'ir in an effort to juxtapose the Egyptian filmmaker Chahine and his decolonial cinema to the Andalusian polymath Ibn Rushd and his Islamic philosophy The Fury Archives Juno Jill

Richards, 2020-08-11 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries radical women's movements and the avant gardes

were often in contact with one another brought together through the socialist internationals Juno Jill Richards argues that these movements were not just socially linked but also deeply interconnected Each offered the other an experimental language that could move beyond the nation state s rights of man and citizen suggesting an alternative conceptual vocabulary for women s rights Rather than focus on the demand for the vote The Fury Archives turns to the daily practices and social worlds of feminist action It offers an alternative history of women s rights practiced by female arsonists suffragette rioters industrial saboteurs self named terrorists lesbian criminals and queer resistance cells Richards also examines the criminal proceedings that emerged in the wake of women s actions tracing the way that citizen and human emerged as linked categories for women on the fringes of an international campaign for suffrage Recovering a transatlantic print archive Richards brings together a wide range of activists and artists including Lumina Sophie Ina C saire Rosa Luxemburg Rebecca West Angelina Weld Grimk Elizabeth Gurley Flynn Hannah H ch Claude Cahun Paulette Nardal and Leonora Carrington An expansive and methodologically innovative book The Fury Archives argues that the relationship of women s rights movements and the avant gardes offers a radical alternative to liberal discourses of human rights in formation at the same historical moment
