Putting Away Childish Things Margaret Cunningham, 2011-08-31 Putting Away Childish Things is a collection of sermons preached over the last fifteen years in churches on the east and west coasts primarily All Saints Church in Pasadena CA and the Church of the Redeemer in Bryn Mawr PA Neither strictly orthodox nor New Age these sermons address openly and honestly biblical issues that trouble or perplex many both inside and outside the church They have been enthusiastically received

Recovering the Evangelical Sacrament Anthony R. Cross, 2012-12-06 The subject of baptism continues to be of considerable interest though it frequently appears within broader studies of sacraments liturgy worship and ecumenical studies and within confessional bounds credobaptist or paedobaptist yet it is rarely discussed by Evangelicals This book however is neither an apologetic for credobaptism nor paedobaptism rather Cross believes that as practiced today both forms are a departure from New Testament baptism which he maintains was an integral part of becoming a Christian and part of the proclaimed gospel He argues that the one baptism of Ephesians 4:5 is conversion baptism and that the baptism referred to in the various New Testament strata refers to this one baptism of Spirit and water The study sets out the case for this interpretation and contends that in key passages baptism is an example of synecdoche The case is then made for a sacramental interpretation of baptism from a thoroughgoing Evangelical perspective Cross concludes with reflections on the necessity of baptismal reform and the relevance of a return to conversion baptism for the contemporary church in a post Christian post Christendom mission setting

Loving the Questions Marianne H. Micks,2005-02-01 Who is God Who is the Creator Who is the Christ What is Salvation Who is God the Spirit What is the Church What is Baptism What is our future Loving the Questions is a series of reflections on the questions raised by the Nicene Creed a fourth century statement of the Christian faith still used regularly in worship in churches around the world Taking us through the creed step by step Marianne Micks not only poses the questions most asked by contemporary Christians but also teaches us to delight in the questions themselves Faith accompanied by doubt she believes is far healthier than faith that never asks why In short accessible chapters Micks informs us of the historical background of the Nicene Creed and reminds us of the creed s theological communal and personal relevance today

Living Water , Klara Tammany is a professional Christian educator who goes about her calling with a joyous urgency This book demonstrates her impassioned approach to religious instruction She starts with the premise that ongoing Christian education must be central to a life of faith and then proceeds from the corollary that baptism must be central to all Christian education Eight group sessions focus repeatedly on water first as a natural element necessary to life then as a symbolic element necessary to spirituality Gradually through prayer song scripture silence poetry visual arts storytelling group discussion and personal reflection water as baptismal element gains ascendancy No longer mere occasional refreshment Living Water inundates becomes life s very medium This text makes for excellent catechumenal preparation but is intended for use by all Christians those who are years into their journeys as well as those who are beginning Designed for small groups of adult Episcopalians the program is easily adaptable to other denominations to one on one spiritual mentoring to children young adult or intergenerational groups and even to individuals for private meditation
