Dialectical Practice In Tibetan Philosophical Culture An Ethnomethodological Inquiry Into Formal Reasoning:

Dialectical Practice in Tibetan Philosophical Culture Kenneth Liberman, 2004 Dialectical Practice in Tibetan Philosophical Culture Kenneth Liberman, 2007-09-26 Tibetan Buddhist scholar monks have long engaged in face to face public philosophical debates This original study challenges Orientalist text based scholarship which has overlooked these lived practices of Tibetan dialectics Kenneth Liberman brings these dynamic disputations to life for the modern reader through a richly detailed turn by turn analysis of the monks formal philosophical reasoning He argues that Tibetan Buddhists deliberately organize their debates into formal structures that both empower and constrain thinking skillfully using logic as an interactional tool to organize their reflections During his three years in residence at Tibetan monastic universities Liberman observed and videotaped the monks debates He then transcribed translated and analyzed them using multimedia software and ethnomethodological techniques which enabled him to scrutinize the local methods that Tibetan debaters use to keep their philosophical inquiries alive His study shows the monks rely on such indigenous dialectical methods as extending an opponent s position to its absurd consequences pulling the rug out from under an opponent and other lively strategies This careful investigation of the formal philosophical work of Tibetan scholars is a pathbreaking analysis of an important classical tradition

Social Structuration in Tibetan Society Jia Luo, 2016-12-20 This volume is unique in the literature concerning both the sociology of education and Tibetan society It aims to propose a Tibetan sociology of education something that no other author has attempted as well as to provide insights into the nature of Tibetan society both historically and currently through the application of Giddens structuration theory supplemented by the work of ancient Tibetan philosopher Je TsongKhapa Previous Western accounts of Tibetan history and society have lacked insider perspectives as well as access to original documentation in the Tibetan language The author of this volume is Tibetan and does not experience these limitations He has also taught sociology at the university level and in 1999 published a general textbook on sociology in Tibetan which attempted to draw on Western theories and apply them to the Tibetan context In short the author appears to be highly credible in taking on this extremely ambitious project

Tasting Coffee Kenneth Liberman, 2022-06-01 At once ethnographic and phenomenological Tasting Coffee investigates the global chain of coffee production from seed to cup stopping at every stage along the way to describe the tasting practices of each stakeholder purveying coffee The ethnomethodological care of these descriptions derives from an attunement to just how these stakeholders discover and describe the flavors of coffee and how they convert subjective experience into objective knowledge The methods and protocols of sensory science are also examined and assessed in their lived details making this study also a contribution to the sociology of science Based upon a decade of research in fourteen countries author Kenneth Liberman provides a nonessentialist ontology of coffee its history and its production The world of coffee becomes a microcosm in which many realities of postmodern humanity are exposed and clarified with the thoughts of Edmund Husserl Alfred Schutz Martin Heidegger Hans Georg Gadamer Emmanuel Levinas Maurice Merleau Ponty Jacques Derrida Ludwig Wittgenstein Aron Gurwitsch and Harold Garfinkel even as these naturally occurring case studies provide fresh specifications for these thinkers ideas

Discipline and Debate Michael Lempert, 2012-04-30 The Dalai Lama has represented Buddhism as a religion of non violence compassion and world peace but this does not reflect how monks learn their vocation This book shows how monasteries use harsh methods to make monks of men and how this tradition is changing as modernist reformers like the Dalai Lama adopt liberal and democratic ideals such as natural rights and individual autonomy In the first in depth account of disciplinary practices at a Tibetan monastery in India Michael Lempert looks closely at everyday education rites from debate to reprimand and corporal punishment His analysis explores how the idioms of violence inscribed in these socialization rites help produce educated moral persons but in ways that trouble Tibetans who aspire to modernity Bringing the study of language and social interaction to our understanding of Buddhism for the first time Lempert shows and why liberal ideals are being acted out by monks in India offering a provocative alternative view of liberalism as a globalizing discourse
