Critical Landscapes Art Space Politics:

Critical Landscapes Emily Eliza Scott, Kirsten J Swenson, 2015-06-05 From Francis and Taylor to Ursula Biemann to Vivan Sundaram Allora Calzadilla and the Center for Urban Pedagogy some of the most compelling artists today are engaging with the politics of land use including the growth of the global economy climate change sustainability Occupy movements and the privatization of public space Their work pivots around a set of evolving questions In what ways is land formed over the course of geological time also contemporary and formed by the conditions of the present How might art contribute to the expansion of spatial and environmental justice Editors Emily Eliza Scott and Kirsten Swenson bring together a range of international voices and artworks to illuminate this critical mass of practices One of the first comprehensive treatments of land use in contemporary art Critical Landscapes skillfully surveys the stakes and concerns of recent land based practices outlining the art historical contexts methodological strategies and geopolitical phenomena This cross disciplinary collection is destined to be an essential reference not only within the fields of art and art history but also across those of cultural geography architecture and urban planning environmental history and landscape studies

Art and the City Jason Luger, Julie Ren, 2017-05-18 This book presents a global perspective on the political agency of arts in place International and leading scholars and artists themselves present critical theory and practice of contemporary art as a politicised force This book extends thinking on contemporary arts practices in the urban and political context of protest and social resilience and offers the prism of a critical artscape in which to view the urgent interaction of arts and the urban politic

Thinking the Contemporary Landscape Christophe Girod, Dora Imhof, 2016-10-25 On the heels of our groundbreaking books in landscape architecture James Corner's Recovering Landscape and Charles Waldheim's Landscape Urbanism Reader comes another essential reader Examining our shifting perceptions of nature and place in the context of environmental challenges and how these affect urbanism and architecture the seventeen essayists in argue for an all encompassing view of landscape that integrates the scientific intellectual aesthetic and mythic into a new multidisciplinary understanding of the contemporary landscape A must read for anyone concerned about the changing nature of our landscape in a time of climate crisis

Landscape Is...! Gareth Doherty, Charles Waldheim, 2025-02-24 Landscape Is examines the implicit biases and received meanings of landscape Following on from the previous publication Is Landscape which examined the plural and promiscuous identities of the landscape idea this companion volume reflects upon the diverse and multiple meanings of landscape as a discipline profession and medium This book is intended for academics researchers and students in landscape architecture and cognate disciplines Chapters address various overlooked aspects of landscape that develop disturb and diversify received understandings of the field Framed as an inquiry into the relationship of landscape to the forms of human subjectivity the book features contributions from leading voices who challenge the contemporary understandings of the field in relation to capital and class race and gender power and politics and more

Creative Urban Atmospheres Nicola Di Croce, 2025-07-11

Creative Urban Atmospheres explores the potential for urban planners researchers and artists to intervene in the atmosphere of spectacle dominating current neoliberal urbanism strategies through sensory and sound based artistic interventions drawing from Tactical Urbanism and Research Creation This book equips readers with tools and insights needed to address the pressing challenges of urban livability and inclusiveness in the face of neoliberal urbanism Through engaging discussions and a case study conducted in Montreal s Quartier des Spectacles the book demonstrates how sound based and sensory interventions can reshape urban atmospheres fostering cohabitation and inclusiveness for diverse populations Key features include an interdisciplinary emphasis on the intertwinements of academic research artistic practice and participatory community engagement ensuring that readers gain both theoretical understanding and practical approaches With its focus on innovative methods such as Research Creation and socially engaged art this book not only critiques existing urban strategies but also empowers planners artists and communities with tactics for collaboratively transforming underused urban spaces into vibrant livable and inclusive social environments This book is designed for a diverse audience deeply invested in the future of urban spaces It will be of interest to urban planners seeking innovative approaches to address urban polarization and promote inclusiveness as well as academic researchers in urban studies and geography exploring the intersections of Tactical Urbanism and sensory interventions Artists designers and architects will find inspiration in its emphasis on creative participatory approaches while policymakers and community advocates can draw practical insights for fostering livable inclusive cities It also speaks to anyone with a vested interest in the challenges facing contemporary cities including gentrification touristification and neoliberal urban pressures on the most marginalized groups

Landscape into Eco Art Mark Cheetham,2018-02-14 Dedicated to an articulation of the earth from broadly ecological perspectives eco art is a vibrant subset of contemporary art that addresses the widespread public concern with rapid climate change and related environmental issues In Landscape into Eco Art Mark Cheetham systematically examines connections and divergences between contemporary eco art land art of the 1960s and 1970s and the historical genre of landscape painting Through eight thematic case studies that illuminate what eco art means in practice reception and history Cheetham places the form in a longer and broader art historical context He considers a wide range of media from painting sculpture and photography to artists films video sound work animation and installation and analyzes the work of internationally prominent artists such as Olafur Eliasson Nancy Holt Mark Dion and Robert Smithson In doing so Cheetham reveals eco art to be a dynamic extension of a long tradition of landscape depiction in the West that boldly enters into today s debates on climate science government policy and our collective and individual responsibility to the planet An ambitious intervention into eco criticism and the environmental humanities this volume provides original ways to understand the issues and practices of eco art in the Anthropocene Art historians humanities scholars and lay readers interested in contemporary art and the environment will find Cheetham s work valuable and invigorating
