Coming Closer To Ourselves Making Everything The Path Of Awakening:

If the Body Politic Could Breathe in the Age of the Refugee Julia Metzger-Traber, 2018-05-15 This book posits that the refugee crisis may actually be a crisis of identity in a rapidly changing world It argues that Western conceptions of the individual Self shape metaphors of political homes and thus the geopolitics of belonging and exclusion Metzger Traber creatively re conceives political belonging by perceiving the interconnection of each Self through its most immediate home the breathing body On an experimental literary journey through her own past and that of Germany she puts political philosophy in conversation with somatic and spiritual insight to expand notions of Self and Home Then she asks What ethical imperatives arise What kinds of homes and homelands would we create if we no longer thought we ended at our skin

Sacred Shelter Susan Celia Greenfield, 2021-05-20 An inside look at an interfaith program for the homeless in New York City including in depth stories of those who have graduated and made new lives In a metropolis like New York homelessness can blend into the urban landscape For Susan Greenfield however New York is the place where a community of resilient remarkable individuals is yearning for a voice Sacred Shelter follows the lives of thirteen formerly homeless people all of whom have graduated from an interfaith life skills program for current and former homeless individuals in the city Through interviews these individuals share traumas from their youth their experience with homelessness and the healing they ve discovered through community and faith Edna Humphrey talks about losing her grandparents father and sister to illness accident and abuse Lisa Sperber discusses her bipolar disorder and her whiteness Dennis Barton speaks about his unconventional path to becoming a first generation college student and his journey to reconnect with his family The memoirists share stories about youth family jobs and love They describe their experiences with racism mental illness sexual assault and domestic violence Each of the thirteen storytellers honestly expresses his or her broken heartedness and how finding community and faith gave them hope to carry on Interspersed are reflections from program directors clerics mentors and volunteers including the cofounder of the program While Sacred Shelter does not tackle the socioeconomic conditions and inequities that cause homelessness it provides a voice for a demographic group that continues to suffer from systemic injustice and marginalization

Hope Street Pamela Young, 2011-01-20 This is the story of a family which has always lived in the heart of one of the traditional working class communities of the North Originally immigrants from Ireland in the mid nineteenth century their saga their triumphs and tragedies unfolded in the cobbled streets working men s cottages and terraced houses of Horwich near Manchester They worked in the cotton mills and on the railways Like most families at the time they were good socialists and trade unionists They also attended the local Spiritualist church Spiritualism was free thinking modern and progressive too and went hand in hand with socialism The family living on Hope Street North had problems every family has and worse Marriages broke up and they had more than their fair share of loss and heartbreak Within the working class in those days there were many now forgotten class distinctions which caused painful rifts between the family There was a violent bully too and an eviction which left a mother and her children wandering the streets penniless and homeless A young girl was run over and killed by a horse and cart and another died of diphtheria An unmarried woman bound her abdomen tightly to disguise her pregnancy and as a result her child was born with deformed legs As a young woman that child went on to elope with her lover and they both committed suicide She died as she was born in shame The book that would become Hope Street started when Pamela Young felt compelled to write about her mother's childhood of seeing things spirits angels that other people couldn't see Vivid memories of their family life came flooding back coal dusk glistening on her father's scalp as he came home from work the old army coats used as bedding and the dresser with doors missing because they'd been chopped up as firewood when times were hard And swirling in and around these very vivid often earthy memories of life in Hope Street were memories of the extraordinary spiritual phenomena that took place there On one occasion a silver ball sped around the room On another her father asking for proof was picked up by a spirit guide and lifted up into the air as light as a feather Pamela would once see her mother engulfed in a cloud of ectoplasm and twice her mother gradually and starting from her head down disappeared before her eyes But it was after her own marriage had broken up and her mother had died when Pamela was in the depths of despair that she found her own spiritual gift Guided by the spirit of her mother she began to fully understand the great project her mother had initiated
