environments and assume the field is inclusive rewarding excellence regardless of age gender socioeconomic status disability or ethnicity However both research and collective experiences in OLEs suggest that many women feel invisible relegated marginalized and undervalued In response to this marginalization this Handbook celebrates the richness of knowledge and practices of women practitioners in OLEs Women scholars and practitioners from numerous fields such as experiential outdoor education adventure education adventure therapy and gender studies explore the implications of their research and practice using poignant examples within their own disciplines These insights emerge from similar life experiences as women and outdoor leaders in the 1970s to the present Social inequalities still abound in OLEs and the Handbook ensures that the contributions of women are highlighted as well as the work that needs to be done to make these spaces inclusive Global in perspective and capacious in content this one stop volume is an indispensable reference resource for a diverse range of academics including students and researchers in the fields of education psychology sociology gender studies geography and environment studies as well as the many outdoors fields Ecologizing Education Sean Blenkinsop, Estella C.

Kuchta, 2024-04-15 Ecologizing Education explores how we can reenvision education to meet the demands of an unjust and rapidly changing world Going beyond green schooling programs that aim only to shape behavior Sean Blenkinsop and Estella Kuchta advance a pedagogical approach that seeks to instill eco conscious and socially just change at the cultural level Ecologizing education as this approach is called involves identifying and working to overcome anti ecological features of contemporary education This approach called ecologizing education aims to develop a classroom culture in sync with the more than human world where diversity and interdependency are intrinsic Blenkinsop and Kuchta illustrate this educational paradigm shift through the real world stories of two public elementary schools located in British Columbia They show that this approach to learning starts with recognizing the environmental and social injustices that pervade our industrialized societies By documenting how ecologizing education helps children create new relationships with the natural world and move toward mutual healing Blenkinsop and Kuchta offer a roadmap for what may be the most potent chance we have at meaningful change in the face of myriad climate crises Timely practical and ultimately inspirational Ecologizing Education is vital reading for any parent caregiver environmentalist or educator looking for wholistic education that places nature and the environment front and center Transforming Public Administration in Canada Jill Anne Chouinard, Susanne
