Working with Parents and Families in Early Childhood Education Ute Ward, Bob Perry, 2020-05-21 This book reports initiatives to listen to parents and families to ascertain what families believe and do as they seek to engage collaboratively with their children s educators and what educators and educational systems might do to facilitate and or establish barriers to such engagement Parental engagement in children s learning and development has many positive benefits However in the current environments of accountability and performativity which are pervading early childhood education in many countries the opportunities for parents and other family members to be part of the development of respectful collaborative relationships with their children s early childhood educators are becoming more and more restricted Many educators feel forced to choose between curriculum outcomes and parental engagement as both involve their time There is a danger that the voices of parents and families in their children s early learning and development will not always be heard seen or fully understood This volume addresses this important issue Researchers educators and families will all benefit from this book to the ultimate benefit of the young children who are the future This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Early Childhood Education Research Journal Educating Young Children from Preschool Through Primary Grades Laverne Warner, Judith Sower, 2005 Catering to the first time teacher the authors provide day to day challenges of what it means to teach young children in the classroom while fostering a mentoring environment for pre service teachers entering the field Chapter 4 addresses children with special needs and commonly used modifications for each of the disabilities A unique chapter on teaching fourth graders chapter 10 has been included that may be covered or skipped depending upon state requirements Lesson planning is emphasized throughout and sample lesson plans and mini lessons have been included for every grade level and subject area Neurodevelopmental Disorders in Children and Adolescents Christopher J. Nicholls, 2018-03-20 Neurodevelopmental Disorders in Children and Adolescents provides an innovative perspective on developmental disorders in youth one focused on embracing and working with the messiness and many variables at play in child and adolescent development The volume s approach is aligned with the NIMH Research Domain Criteria project which hopes to move away from categorical diagnosis toward multidimensional analysis Each chapter focuses on a particular aspect of development cluster of diagnoses or clinical concern The book also emphasizes humility an awareness of diversity and difference without stigma and support for collaborative and integrative healthcare This is an essential volume for practitioners hoping to improve how they evaluate and treat developmental disorders in children
