Commitment The Art Of Living:

The Art of Living Foundation Stephen Jacobs, 2016-03-09 The Hindu derived meditation movement The Art of Living AOL founded in 1981 by Sri Sri Ravi Shankar in Bangalore has grown into a global organization which claims presence in more than 150 countries Stephen Jacobs presents the first comprehensive study of AOL as an important transnational movement and an alternative global spirituality Exploring the nature and characteristics of spirituality in the contemporary global context Jacobs considers whether alternative spiritualities are primarily concerned with individual wellbeing and can simply be regarded as another consumer product The book concludes that involvement in movements such as AOL is not necessarily narcissistic but can foster a sense of community and inspire altruistic activity Napkin Notes, on the Art of Living Gary Michael Durst, 2010-01-08 The best self help book on the market is the summation for all of the five star ratings on Amazon Although countless self help books have been written none have been able to translate psychological theory into practical day to day application as well as this one does By integrating Eastern and Western philosophy with science and religion Napkin Notes provides a concise easy to read guide for living Dr Durst promotes the concept that we are 100% responsible for everything in our experience and for our reactions to life's events This focus provides not only increased knowledge but also the impetus to change In so doing it directs us to greater insight satisfaction and fulfillment The Art of Winning Commitment Dick RICHARDS, 2004-03-12 Leadership books most often cite interviews with high profile business executives while offering do and don't case studies of different corporate initiatives in action But some of the world's most extraordinary leaders work their magic outside the world of business Their ability to gain the enthusiastic commitment of their people when something other and perhaps greater than profit is at stake demonstrates a fundamental human connection that their counterparts in the corporate sector would do well to emulate The Art of Winning Commitment presents the unique perspectives of a diverse group of leaders that includes educators religious and spiritual leaders heads of not for profit social services an orchestra conductor a professional storyteller Readers will also learn leadership secrets from former Philadelphia 76ers executive Pat Croce former Chief of the Cherokee Nation Wilma Mankiller and politician and retired U S Army General Wesley Clark and others In the search for commitment loyalty and business excellence leaders can learn a lot from those outside of the business definition of leadership The Art of Living John Sellars, 2013-10-16 Ancient philosophy was conceived as a way of life or an art of living but if ancient philosophers did think that philosophy should transform an individual's way of life then what conception of philosophy stands behind this claim John Sellars explores this question through a detailed account of ancient Stoic ideas about the nature and function of philosophy He considers the Socratic background to Stoic thinking about philosophy and Sceptical objections raised by Sextus Empiricus and offers readings of late Stoic texts by Epictetus and Marcus Aurelius Sellars argues that the conception of philosophy as an art of living inaugurated by Socrates and developed by the Stoics has persisted since antiquity and remains a living alternative to modern attempts to assimilate philosophy to the natural sciences It also enables us to rethink the relationship between an individual's philosophy and their biography The book appears here in paperback for the first time with a new Preface by the author

Love in Education & the Art of Living Becky L. Noël Smith, Randy Hewitt, 2020-01-01 It is common for teachers and students of education to feel disheartened about the profession and their own aims and purposes once they become conscious of the dehumanizing tendencies of the schooling institution As teacher educators we have also known many students who after studying critical perspectives aimed at exposing the power and privilege flowing through the public schools then look to us with the question Where's the hope Our attempt to answer our students' questions has led us to consider what beauty and love in education look like Where can it be seen and how can we bring this forward so it can be instructive to those who are faced with similar questions about the incredibly important craft of teaching This collection of narratives essays and poetic expressions includes the perspectives of students and educators who in varying ways express gratitude toward those who came before them and a deep desire to keep the faith alive The authors share narrative accounts of someone or something in the public schools or learning experiences in general that inspired and nurtured the passionate desire to achieve goods internal to some shared practice that is some art at living such that there was a transformative readjustment to the very nature of experience itself We share with readers the stories and intellectual habits that have fueled us inspired us and that continue to push us to engage in the practice of cultivating educational dynamics that are meaningful and transformative for ourselves our students and our communities The book concludes with an exploration into how teachers might not only root their craft but the habit of love in general in a sense of freedom

Cicero's De Finibus Julia Annas, Gábor Betegh, 2016 This book opens up Cicero s work philosophically taking us deeper into ancient ethical debates and into Cicero s own sceptical stance

Beyond the New Morality Germain Grisez, Russell Shaw, 1988-09-30 First published in 1974 with a second revised edition in 1980 Beyond the New Morality third edition retains the best elements of the earlier versions including the authors clear straightforward presentation and use of nontechnical language Although the basic approach content and organization remain substantially the same the new edition does develop and amend some aspects of the theory For example the community dimension of morality is brought out more clearly and the first principle of morality is now formulated more accurately in terms of willing in line with integral human fulfillment We are proposing an ethics But what is ethics As we use the word it means a philosophical study of morality of the foundations on which morality is based and of the practical implications of a systematic moral outlook We believe ethics must start by clarifying the fundamental notions of freedom action and community Then it can go on to examine the question What is the ultimate distinction between moral good and moral evil between action which is right and action which is wrong An answer becomes useful in practice however only after one has worked out a satisfactory way of thinking through concrete moral issues Should I do this or that Thus we next turn to the problem of establishing basic moral principles Finally once one is in a position to take a reasoned view of moral issues it is possible to ask and try to answer the question To what extent can I close the gap in my life and in society between the way I think things ought to be and the way they are History studies human actions but it looks at particular actions which have actually taken place ethics is concerned with human action in general or with possible kinds of actions Psychology and the social sciences also have somewhat the same subject matter as ethics but they are mainly concerned with how human beings actually do act and societies actually do work ethics concentrates on how persons ought to act and societies ought to be formed and reformed
