Commitment Character And Citizenship Commitment Character And Citizenship:

Commitment, Character, and Citizenship Hanan A. Alexander, Ayman K. Agbaria, 2012 As liberal democracies include increasingly diverse and multifaceted populations the longstanding debate about the role of the state in religious education and the place of religion in public life seems imperative now more than ever The maintenance of religious schools and the planning of religious education curricula raise a profound challenge Too much state supervision can be conceived as interference in religious freedom and as a confinement of the right to cultural liberty Too little supervision can be seen as neglecting the development of the liberal values required to live and work in a democratic society and as abandoning those who within their communities wish to attain a more rigorous education for citizenship and democracy This book draws together leading educationalists philosophers theologians and social scientists to explore issues problems and tensions concerning religious education in a variety of international settings The contributors explore the possibilities and limitations of religious education in preparing citizens in multicultural and multi religious democratic societies Research

Anthology on Instilling Social Justice in the Classroom Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-11-27 The issue of social justice has been brought to the forefront of society within recent years and educational institutions have become an integral part of this critical conversation Classroom settings are expected to take part in the promotion of inclusive practices and the development of culturally proficient environments that provide equal and effective education for all students regardless of race gender socio economic status and disability as well as from all walks of life The scope of these practices finds itself rooted in curriculum teacher preparation teaching practices and pedagogy in all educational environments Diversity within school administrations teachers and students has led to the need for socially just practices to become the norm for the progression and advancement of education worldwide In a modern society that is fighting for the equal treatment of all individuals the classroom must be a topic of discussion as it stands as a root of the problem and can be a major step in the right direction moving forward Research Anthology on Instilling Social Justice in the Classroom is a comprehensive reference source that provides an overview of social justice and its role in education ranging from concepts and theories for inclusivity tools and technologies for teaching diverse students and the implications of having culturally competent and diverse classrooms The chapters dive deeper into the curriculum choices teaching theories and student experience as teachers strive to instill social justice learning methods within their classrooms These topics span a wide range of subjects from STEM to language arts and within all types of climates PK 12 higher education online or in person instruction and classrooms across the globe This book is ideal for in service and preservice teachers administrators social justice researchers practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in how social justice is currently being implemented in all aspects of education Migration, Regionalization, Citizenship Katja Sarkowsky, Rainer-Olaf Schultze, Sabine Schwarze, 2014-12-04 From the perspectives of the political sciences as well as literature and language studies this volume looks comparatively at Canadian and European constellations of cultural and linguistic diversity By so doing it takes Canada as exemplary for the effects of transnationalization regionalization and cultural and linguistic diversification on notions of citizenship and processes of identity formation On the Edge Ina ter Avest,2013-02-12 For the first time leading scholars in Religious Education and Citizenship Education reflect upon the making of of their theoretical framework in honour of Siebren Miedema In this Liber Amicorum in retrospect these scholars recognize implicitly or more explicitly critical incidents and they honour critical persons for the decisive voice each of them had in the articulation of the theoretical frame of reference the scholars developed in the field of pedagogy of religion s and citizenship education Or to use the words Siebren Miedema prefers the field of religious citizenship education The eminence grise in the field of Pedagogy is brought together in this volume like John Hull Bob Jackson and Wolfram Weisse scholars from the United States of America like Jack Seymour and Mary Elizabeth Moore scholars from Latin America like G nther Dietz scholars from the Netherlands like Cok Bakker Chris Hermans Henk Kuindersma Alma Lanser Wilna Meijer Bram de Muynck and Doret de Ruyter scholars from Western Europe like Hans G nther Heimbrock and Friedrich Schweitzer scholars from Eastern Europe like Fedor Kozyrev scholars from up North like Geir Skeie scholars from down South like Cornelia Roux and Marian De Souza They all responded to the question of the editor Ina ter Avest to reflect upon the relationship between their biography and their developed theoretical framework For everybody interested in the field of religious citizenship education this volume offers a thorough introduction to their theories We hope this comprehensive book will provoke readers to balance on the edge of different perspectives and to stimulate the development of their own line of thought on religious citizenship education SAGE Handbook of Education for Citizenship and Democracy James Arthur,Ian Davies,Carole Hahn,2008-07-01 This handbook brings together new work by some of the leading authorities on citizenship education and is divided into five sections The first section deals with key ideas about citizenship education including democracy rights globalization and equity Section two contains a wide range of national case studies of citizenship education including African Asian Australian European and North and South American examples The third section focuses on perspectives about citizenship education with discussions about key areas such as sustainable development anti racism gender Section four provides insights into different characterisations of citizenship education with illustrations of democratic schools peace and conflict education global education human rights education etc The final section provides a series of chapters on the pedagogy of citizenship education with discussions about curriculum teaching learning and assessment School Leadership, Citizenship Education and Politics in China Shuqin Xu,2016-08-23 This book examines and theorizes the dynamics and complexities of leadership in citizenship education in junior secondary schools in Shanghai China Specifically it examines from a macro and micro political theoretical perspective the interactions between principals and school party secretaries SPSs and how they respond to the demands of macro and micro political actors This qualitative empirical research found four major school leadership citizenship education scenarios in which principals and SPSs addressed the interests of different macro and micro political actors Moreover principals and SPSs enjoyed a complicated working relationship at the micro political school level in which they collaborated to fulfill their responsibilities and respond to school macro and micro political actors while competing for power over leadership in citizenship education Principals and SPSs leadership in citizenship education was shaped by inter related factors including diverse influences in a multi leveled world the integration of politics and education the demands of macro and micro political actors and personal factors To interpret these findings this study proposes a theoretical framework for understanding leadership in citizenship education in China as a political exercise This theoretical framework is useful for understanding the complexity of school and citizenship education leadership the micro political relationship between Chinese principals and SPSs and their dynamic and complex interactions with macro and micro political actors

Judaism, Education and Social Justice Matt Plen, 2022-10-20 This book sets out new theoretical foundations for Jewish social justice education by surveying and discussing Freirean critical pedagogy Catholic models of social justice education Jewish social justice literature and interviews with educators and activists Jewish social justice education is an active and growing field encompassing a diverse range of issues including the treatment of refugees environmental justice human rights peace and justice in Israel Palestine gender equality and LGBT inclusion Yet Jewish social justice education remains an under researched and under theorized phenomenon This lacuna has practical implications for the thousands of educators and activists across the world who are attempting to achieve social justice ends through the medium of Jewish education In discussing the key philosophical political and educational issues that emerge when discussing these topics the author draws on thinkers including Hannah Arendt Martin Buber Alasdair MacIntyre and Jonathan Sacks Matt Plen proposes three possible directions for a normative theory of Jewish social justice education Jewish politics in a renewed public sphere Jewish education for relational community building and Jewish critical pedagogy for cultural emancipation
