McKenna,2012-11-01 This bestselling book gives preservice and practicing literacy coaches the tools they need to build a successful schoolwide reading program The authors well known experts in the field describe the literacy coach s crucial evolving role in today s schools They offer step by step guidelines for implementing curricula and assessments selecting instructional materials and planning for differentiation and intervention Specific ways to support teachers by providing high quality professional development are discussed The book is grounded in state of the art research on PreK 5 instruction and the characteristics of effective coaches New to This Edition Incorporates the latest research and instructional materials Expanded grade range now includes PreK and grades 4 5 Content on RTI and the Common Core standards is woven throughout Strategies for making professional development more responsive to teachers needs See also The Literacy Coaching Challenge which guides more experienced coaches in choosing among different coaching models and addresses typical issues of implementation Resources in Education ,2001-10

Common Core Coach for American Literature and Informational Texts I ,2014 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 Student-Centered Coaching From a Distance Diane Sweeney,Leanna S. Harris,2021-02-01 Ideas inspiration and the moves to keep student learning at the center of instructional coaching no matter where it occurs As we return to normal the guidance in this book will ensure we continue to focus on deeply knowing our students having a coherent and focused curriculum and coaching from a place of formative assessment and evidence Authors Diane Sweeney and Leanna Harris whose best selling books have influenced thousands of K 12 coaches have written Student Centered Coaching from a Distance to help coaches and teachers adapt Each chapter includes coaching moves that can be used in virtual hybrid and in person settings These technology focused moves are accompanied by language stems note catchers and other tools that provide structure and coherence to coaching conversations Each chapter also provides specific moves that promote equity and work to remove many of the barriers that have been brought into clearer focus during the challenges of our times Readers will find a highly effective coaching approach tailored to the distance learning context strategies to help close opportunity gaps in depth instruction for co teaching from a distance The enduring practices in this book will help coaches partner with teachers during challenging times and keep student learning at the center for years to come School Libraries in a Time of Change Kathleen W. Craver,2019-08-01 By becoming practical futurists school librarians can help their libraries not only to survive sweeping changes in education but to thrive This book shows how to spot technological trends and use them to your library s advantage During this time of rapid modernization of technology and educational reform this book is a must read for school librarians tasked with ensuring their libraries meet evolving standards This title provides the research and organizational techniques and skills they need to gain seats at the table of the three power committees technology curricula and strategic planning School librarians need to collect and publicize national and local school based evidence that shows the positive correlations between school librarians and student achievement Craver notes correlative sources and provides ideas to employ them to ensure that school librarians remain indispensable In addition acquiring technological skills and becoming expert at their application are paramount for librarians Even more important is the need for librarians to assume sole responsibility for designing and integrating information literacy and critical thinking skills throughout the curriculum Craver analyzes studies that show students inability to discern fact from fiction ads from news and information bias in electronic information sources and recommends six actions that school librarians take to ensure that they become active participants in their future rather than its victims

Coaching Supervision Jo Birch, Peter Welch, 2019-05-13 Coaching and mentoring supervision is a rapidly expanding field This book is a curated collection of contemporary thinking presenting cutting edge contributions from international writers leaders in the professional field academics and practitioners who offer a range of accessible applied research practice examples case studies guidelines and reflective prompts to readers As in art galleries some pieces require reflection and return visits may be necessary The work is edgy and new and yet totally grounded in the coaching and mentoring supervisor experience bringing pragmatic solutions to current complex challenges Over the last decade coaching supervision has moved from a rare and privileged audience to being common place amongst best practice coaches This book harnesses the current surge in curiosity knowledge and practice in coaching and mentoring supervision and provides a collective statement of our times Each chapter in its highly individual way equips us to face the demands of the VUCA environment In turn the book resources coaching and mentoring supervisors to support their supervisees coaches and mentors who work with leaders grappling with global community and personal challenges in this uncertain fast moving world Supervision for mentors is developing alongside coaching supervision and at present there appears to be no obvious distinctions with little current research focussing on the mentoring supervision experience However its distinctive identity is still forming We invite mentors and mentor supervisors as they read these works to consider the emerging similarities and differences in addressing requirements for mentoring supervision The book brings together pioneering research and practice and as such will remain current for many years This book will be popular with experienced professionals who want to stretch and deepen their practice keep up to date with current studies challenge and catalyse their own thinking and embrace learning from real world practitioner examples and applied research
