Commons And Borderlands:

Commons and Borderlands Marilyn Strathern, 2004 A leading social anthropologist examines early 21st century interests in interdisciplinarity with particular attention to the conjunction of science and society Archaeology The Global Idea of 'the Commons' Donald Macon Nonini, 2007 During the last three decades corporations allied with scientists and universities national and regional governments and international financial institutions have through a variety of mechanisms associated with neo liberal globalization acted to dispossess large proportions of the world's population of their commons resources and enclose them for profit making In response throughout the global South and in the cities of the global North large numbers of people have formed movements to defend the commons in all their variety The idea of the commons has thus emerged as a global idea and commons have emerged as sites of conflict around the world The essays in this forum assess strategically the situations of selected commons in a variety of diagnostic sites where they exist the ways in which they are being transformed by the incursions of capital and state and the ways in which they are becoming the locus of struggle for those who depend on them to survive

Binational Commons Tony Payan, Pamela L Cruz, 2020-10-06 Studying institutional development is not only about empowering communities to withstand political buccaneering it is also about generating effective and democratic governance so that all members of a community can enjoy the benefits of social life In the U S Mexico borderlands cross border governance draws only sporadic and even erratic attention primarily in times of crises when governance mechanisms can no longer provide even moderately adequate solutions This volume addresses the most pertinent binational issues and how they are dealt with by both countries In this important and timely volume experts tackle the important problem of cross border governance by an examination of formal and informal institutions networks processes and mechanisms Contributors also discuss various social political and economic actors and agencies that make up the increasingly complex governance space that is the U S Mexico border Binational Commons focuses on whether the institutions that presently govern the U S Mexico transborder space are effective in providing solutions to difficult binational problems as they manifest themselves in the borderlands Critical for policy making now and into the future this volume addresses key binational issues It explores where there are strong levels of institutional governance development where it is failing how governance mechanisms have evolved over time and what can be done to improve it to meet the needs of the U S Mexico borderlands in the next decades Contributors Silvia M Chavez Baray Kimberly Collins Irasema Coronado Guadalupe Correa Cabrera Pamela L Cruz Adri n Duhalt James Gerber Manuel A Guti rrez V ctor Daniel Jurado Flores Evan D McCormick Jorge Eduardo Mendoza Cota Miriam S Monroy Eva M Moya Stephen Mumme Tony Payan Carla Pederzini Villarreal Sergio Pe a Octavio Rodr guez Ferreira Cecilia Sarabia R os Kathleen Staudt

Routledge Handbook of Food as a Commons Jose Luis Vivero-Pol, Tomaso Ferrando, Olivier De Schutter, Ugo Mattei, 2018-12-17 This Handbook provides the first comprehensive review and synthesis of knowledge and new thinking on how food and food systems can be thought interpreted and practiced around the old new paradigms of commons and commoning The overall aim is to investigate the multiple constraints that occur within and sustain the dominant food and nutrition regime and to explore how it can change when different elements of the current food systems are explored and re imagined from a commons perspective The book sparks the debate on food as a commons between and within disciplines with particular attention to spaces of resistance food sovereignty de growth open knowledge transition town occupations bottom up social innovations and organizational scales local food national policies South South collaborations international governance and multi national agreements Overall it shows the consequences of a shift to the alternative paradigm of food as a commons in terms of food the planet and living beings Chapters 1 and 24 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Housing as Commons Stavros Stavrides,Penny Travlou,2022-07-14 Experiences of the struggle for housing ignited by the lack of social and affordable housing have led to the establishing of shared and self managed housing areas In such a context it becomes crucially important to re think the need to define common urban worlds from below Here Penny Travlou and Stavros Stavridis trace contemporary practices of urban commoning through which people re define housing economies Connecting to a rich literature on the importance of commons and of practices of commoning for the creation of emancipated societies the authors discuss whether housing struggles and co habitation experiences may contribute in crucial ways to the development of a commoning culture The authors explore a variety of urban contexts through global case studies from across the Global North and South in search of concrete examples that illustrate the potentialities of urban commoning
