Policy Development in TESOL and Multilingualism Kashif Raza,Christine Coombe,Dudley Reynolds,2021-08-22 The book is of interest to scholars of multilingualism language teachers researchers and administrators who are developing policies on teaching English and promoting multilingualism Given its scope this edited collection provides an overview of how multilingualism is transforming the practice of Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages TESOL in diverse contexts around the world It serves as a platform for discussions related to policy enactment where TESOL and multilingualism are viewed as collaborative endeavours and approaches the topic from three different angles The first section of the book provides critical examinations of previous initiatives and accomplishments in the area of language policy development and implementation The second section describes current projects and initiatives intended to expand and strengthen the field of TESOL while providing space for local and indigenous languages to develop The third and last part of the book highlights policy development areas that need special consideration in order to develop a form of TESOL that builds on and contributes to multilingualism

ELF and Applied Linguistics Kumiko Murata,2023-12-22 With help from a global cast of scholars Kumiko Murata explores the remodelling of the discipline of applied linguistics which traditionally regarded Anglophone native speaker English as the standard for English as a lingua franca ELF This edited volume probes the dichotomy between the current focus of applied linguistic research and a drastically changed English use in a globalised world This division is approached from diverse perspectives and with the overarching understanding of ELF as an indispensable area of applied linguistics research. The volume includes theoretical backgrounds to English as a lingua franca, the nature of ELF interactions, language policy and practice from an ELF perspective, and the relationship between multilingualism and ELF. A resourceful book not only to ELF researchers but also applied linguists in general as well as policy makers, administrators, practicing teachers, and university students from diverse linguistic backgrounds.

The Oxford Handbook of Southeast Asian Englishes Andrew J. Moody, 2024-03-03. The Oxford Handbook of Southeast Asian Englishes is the first reference work of its kind to describe both the history and the contemporary forms, functions, and status of English in Southeast Asia (SEA). Since the arrival of English traders to Southeast Asia in the seventeenth century, the English language has had a profound impact on the linguistic ecologies and the development of societies throughout the region. Today, countries such as Singapore and the Philippines have adopted English as a national language, while in others such as Indonesia and Cambodia, it is used as a foreign language of education. The chapters in this volume provide a comprehensive overview of current research on a wide range of topics addressing the impact of English as a language of globalization and exploring new approaches to the spread of English in SEA. The volume is divided into six parts that investigate respectively historical and contemporary English contact in SEA, the structures of the Englishes spoken in different SEA nations, the English language literatures of the region, approaches to English in education throughout the region, and resources for researching SEA Englishes. The handbook will be an invaluable reference work for students and researchers in areas as diverse as contact linguistics, English as a Foreign Language, world Englishes, and sociolinguistics.

Teacher Education for English as a Lingua Franca Subhan Zein, 2018-11-13. This edited collection responds to a gap in the literature by presenting a much-needed examination of both the theoretical and practical aspects of teacher education for English as a lingua franca in Indonesia. Through a series of extended research-based and conceptual chapters written by experts in teaching English to speakers of other languages (TESOL) in and about Indonesia, this book offers an insight into Indonesia's unique cultural, social, and institutional contexts. The content focuses on four interrelated themes: the transition of perspective from English as a foreign language (EFL) to English as a lingua franca (ELF), the knowledge base of ELF pedagogy, teacher agency and identity in ELF, and innovations in teacher education for ELF. This book is highly relevant to English teachers, teacher educators, and scholars worldwide aspiring to broaden their horizon and professionalism in the teaching of ELF.

Hong Kong English May Wong, 2017-01-30. This book systematically examines the linguistic features and socio-cultural issues of Hong Kong English. The author focuses on authentic data taken from the International Corpus of English, the Hong Kong component, and the Corpus of Global Web-based English to track the ways in which the English language in Hong Kong has been adapted by its users. She also analyses the emergence of new forms and structures in its grammar and discourse. While the phonetic and phonological aspects of this variety of English have been well documented, its grammatical peculiarities and social language use have been hitherto neglected. This book offers original insights into the grammatical and pragmatic discursial features of Hong Kong English and will therefore be of interest to those working in fields such as World Englishes and corpus linguistics Early Language Learning Policy in the 21st Century Subhan Zein, Maria R. Coady, 2021-09-22 This volume analyses the policymaking expectations implementation progress and outcomes of early language learning in various education policy contexts worldwide The contributors to the volume are international researchers specialising in language policy and early language learning and their contributions aim to advance scholarship on early language learning policies and inform policymaking at the global level The languages considered include learning English as a second language in primary schools in Japan Mexico Serbia Argentina and Tanzania Spanish language education in the US and Australia Arabic as a second language in Israel and Bangladesh Chinese in South America and Oceania and finally early German teaching and learning in France and the UK
