Dienel, P. Lyth, 1999-01-12 Since the end of World War II European airlines have revealed their own operational style By analyzing seven European flag carriers Dienel and Lyth provide a comparative study of the airline business covering government policy aircraft procurement network growth commercial performance and collaboration with other airlines and transport modes This study also seeks to explain why national flag carriers have survived in an age of globalization and strategic alliances A concluding chapter views the contrasting American air transport industry Europe after Empire Elizabeth Buettner, 2016-03-24 Europe after Empire is a pioneering comparative history of European decolonization from the formal ending of empires to the postcolonial European present Elizabeth Buettner charts the long term development of post war decolonization processes as well as the histories of inward and return migration from former empires which followed She shows that not only were former colonies remade as a result of the path to decolonization so too was Western Europe with imperial traces scattered throughout popular and elite cultures consumer goods religious life political formations and ideological terrains People were also inwardly mobile including not simply Europeans returning home but Asians Africans West Indians and others who made their way to Europe to forge new lives The result is a Europe fundamentally transformed by multicultural diversity and cultural hybridity and by the destabilization of assumptions about race culture and the meanings of place and where imperial legacies and memories live on De dynamiek van een emigratiecultuur Enne Koops,2010 Monographic Series Library of Congress, Economic titles/abstracts ,1990
