Training Hearts, Teaching Minds Starr Meade, 2000 Supplies two needs 1 profitable useable material for family devotions and 2 a practical guide for parents helping their children learn the catechism

Our Only Comfort Neal D. Presa, 2015-04-10 This book is a collection of fifty two devotions based on the Heidelberg Catechism one of the foundational documents of the Presbyterian Church U S A Former PC USA moderator Neal D Presa begins each devotion with a few of the questions from the catechism along with their Scripture references and follows with a brief meditation on those questions Presa's reflections tie the catechism questions to daily life in contemporary America helping readers find meaning and relevance for their own lives Our Only Comfort is a helpful resource for those interested in learning more about their Reformed heritage and how they can apply it to their daily lives

The Quest for Comfort William Boekestein, 2011 The Heidelberg Catechism has been taught to children for hundreds of years encouraging them to seek Christ as their true source of comfort But how did this catechism get written In The Quest for Comfort William Boekestein and Evan Hughes combine history and art to retell the events that led to making the catechism By sharing the stories of Caspar Olevianus Zacharias Ursinus and Frederick III and how they came to Heidelberg children will gain a greater appreciation of the Christian faith as it is expressed in the Heidelberg Catechism Endorsement The Heidelberg Catechism was an important part of my childhood Every week I had to memorize a question and answer and every week I was taught to understand and apply what I had learned This provided a theological foundation that continues to serve me many years later I am grateful for this little book through which William Boekestein introduces the Catechism to another generation of children May they come to treasure it as I have Tim Challies editor of DiscerningReader.com
