with entries on all different genres animation documentaries sitcoms sports talk shows and variety shows and performers such as Muhammad Ali Louis Armstrong Bill Cosby and Oprah Winfrey Additionally information can be found on general issues ranging from African American audiences and stereotypes through the related networks and organizations This book has hundreds of cross referenced entries from A to Z in the dictionary and a list of acronyms with their corresponding definitions The extensive chronology shows who did what and when and the introduction traces the often difficult circumstances African American performers faced compared to the more satisfactory present situation Finally the bibliography is useful to those readers who want to know more about specific topics or persons

The Old French Lays of Ignaure, Oiselet and Amours Glyn Sheridan Burgess, Leslie C. Brook, 2010 New editions with translations and introductions The three narrative lays presented here form a sequel to the authors French Arthurian Literature IV Eleven Old French Narrative Lays published in 2007 No new edition of Ignaure has appeared since 1938 and in the meantime this poem has generated a considerable amount of critical comment especially as it provides the first full length example in medieval European literature of the theme of the Eaten Heart Oiselet recounts a bird's use of three truths as a means of escaping from the clutches of an uncultivated villain In the extant manuscripts these truths occur in two different orders both of which are provided in the present edition Amours which follows the progress of a love affair between a nobleman and his beloved has not been edited since 1878 All three poems challenge our understanding of the term lay especially if we regard the lays of Marie de France as defining the principal features of this genre GLYN S BURGESS is Emeritus Professor of French at the University of Liverpool LESLIE C BROOK is Honorary Senior Research Fellow in French at the University of Birmingham
