The Creative Crone Sylvia Henneberg, 2010 Henneberg shows how these writers offer radically different but richly complementary strategies for breaking the silence surrounding age Rich provides an approach to aging so strongly intertwined with other political issues that its complexity may keep us from immediately identifying age as one of her chief concerns On the other hand Sarton's direct treatment of aging sensitizes us to its importance and helps us see its significance in such writings as Rich's Meanwhile Rich's efforts to politicize age create stimulating contexts for Sarton's work Henneberg explores elements of these writers' individual poems that develop themes of aging including imagery and symbol the construction of a persona and the uses of rhythms to reinforce the themes She also includes analyses of their fiction and nonfiction works and draws ideas from age studies by scholars such as Margaret Morganroth Gullette Kathleen Woodward and Thomas Cole From publisher description May Sarton Selected Letters 1955 To 1995 May Sarton, 2002-06-04 All her life May Sarton carried on a voluminous private correspondence with family friends and lovers Early childhood into middle age covers topics of theater study travel teaching and the anguish as World War II approaches Later joys of flowers affection for animals and illustrious acquaintances and intimates both here and abroad are shown Poets Translate

every line creating a tantalizing magnetically charged distance between reader and poet Halfway to Silence After decades of writing flowing lyric verse May Sarton's style turned to short vibrant bursts of poetry These condensed poems are rife with exuberant impressions of nature and of love including two of her most acclaimed works Old Lovers at the Ballet and Of the Muse Recognized as a true pioneer in lesbian literature Sarton's poems enter and illuminate every natural corner of our lives So strong in their faith and in their positive response to the human condition that they will outlast much of the fashionable cynical poetry of our ear James Martin
