Commanding The Waterways The Story Of Sea Ray:

Commanding the Waterways Jeffrey L. Rodengen, 2008 As Sea Ray approaches its 50th anniversary the commitment to quality and innovation that founder C N Ray instilled in the company decades ago remains stronger than ever Sea Ray's unique philosophy which centers on design excellence and dealer relationships has helped the company thrive since the opening of its first plant in Oxford Michigan in 1959 Over the years Sea Ray has faced many challenges from inflation to oil embargoes to the Great Boating Depression Through a combination of strong dealer relationships which help ensure customer satisfaction and build brand loyalty and a dedication to quality and innovation Sea Ray strengthened its business and increased profitability in spite of those tough times Today Sea Ray produces more than 40 different boat models with worldwide sales totaling nearly 1 billion a year Boasting the widest variety of pleasure boats and one of the highest customer satisfaction ratings in the world Sea Ray is now the largest manufacturer of superior quality fiberglass boats with seven U S based manufacturing facilities and many dealers across the globe Sea Ray's desire to create high quality boats and its dedication to exceptional service keep the company at the top of the marine industry Commanding the Waterways The Story of Sea Ray provides a compelling account of the immediate affect Sea Ray had on the boating industry as well as its continued growth and success since entering the business 50 years ago

Making Waves Scott M Peters, 2015-01-22 Michigan will always be known as the automobile capital of the world but the Great Lakes State boasts a similarly rich heritage in the development of boat building in America By the late nineteenth century Michigan had emerged as the industry's hub drawing together the most talented designers builders and engine makers to produce some of the fastest and most innovative boats ever created Within decades gifted Michigan entrepreneurs like Christopher Columbus Smith John L Hacker and Gar Wood had established some of the nation's top boat brands and brought the prospect of boat ownership within reach for American consumers from all ranges of income More than just revolutionizing recreational boating Michigan boat builders also left their mark on history from developing the speedy runabouts favored by illicit rum runners during the Prohibition era to creating the landing craft that carried Allied forces to shores in Europe and the Pacific in WWII In Making Waves Scott M Peters explores this intriguing story of people processes and products of an industry that evolved in Michigan but would change boating across the world
