3. Learning Objective: (What will students know & be able to do as a result of this lesson?)

Students will cooperatively prepare and present a multimedia presentation after synthesizing information using the song and lyrics from various cultural music/songs.

Students will demonstrate empathy by making inferences about thoughts, feelings and values of other cultures based off of songs from a specific culture.

STUDENT-FRIENDLY TRANSLATION

With peer support, I will show empathy by presenting about different forms of cultural music throughout different time periods and identify various the role of music.

4. Relevance/Rationale:

Students will apply empathy in their learning. They will "put themselves in others shoes" to understand the feeling and experiences of people different than who they are or people from a different time. Many cultures are represented in the United States and each culture has value and influence on what the United States is today, which is why it is important to learn and honor other cultures.

STUDENT-FRIENDLY TRANSLATION

I will respect other cultures' artistic and historical contributions to the nation I live in.

5. Essential Questions:

What does it look like for you to be in someone else's shoes?

What ways can cultures be represented.

Why is it important to have empathy for those who lived long ago?
