Ennobling Love C. Stephen Jaeger, 2010-08-03 Richard Duke of Aquitaine son of the King of England remained with Philip the King of France who so honored him for so long that they ate every day at the same table and from the same dish and at night their beds did not separate them And the King of France loved him as his own soul and they loved each other so much that the King of England was absolutely astonished at the vehement love between them and marveled at what it could mean Public avowals of love between men were common from antiquity through the Middle Ages What do these expressions leave to interpretation An extraordinary amount as Stephen Jaeger demonstrates Unlike current efforts to read medieval culture through modern mores Stephen Jaeger contends that love and sex in the Middle Ages relate to each other very differently than in the postmedieval period Love was not only a mode of feeling and desiring or an exclusively private sentiment but a way of behaving and a social ideal It was a form of aristocratic self representation its social function to show forth virtue in lovers to raise their inner worth to increase their honor and enhance their reputation To judge from the number of royal love relationships documented it seems normal rather than exceptional that a king loved his favorites and the courtiers and advisors clerical and lay loved their superiors and each other Jaeger makes an elaborate accessible and certain to be controversial case for the centrality of friendship and love as aristocratic lay clerical and monastic ideals Ennobling Love is a magisterial work a book that charts the social constructions of passion and sexuality in our own times no less than in the Middle Ages

It's Just Me Ava Alexandria,2019-07-08 As I sit here and think of all the memories I could write about I wonder why do I choose these stories I guess one could say it s because days go by so quickly that before you know it we re old Those turning points I thought about in our lives have turned in the blink of an eye Whether or not you choose to complete reading this book is completely up to you However know just one thing this book was put together with a lot of heart soul heartbreak love and yes tears This book is written from three very different perspectives yet much the same woman with very different stories of heartbreak and laughter There is one very common thread my love for God along with my strength as a woman to persevere through some of the most horrific times of my life not on my own accord although at times I thought so but by the grace and mercy of our Holy Savior Jesus Christ I would like to take this time to thank all those who went on my journeys with me those who supported me those who held me those who cried with me and yes even those who gave me a kick on the rump when I needed it I would also like to thank my church for being our rock on those days our lives turned into nothing more than a swamp I dedicate this book to the ministry that has been helping me throughout the years for all the goodness you gave to me and others In his loving grace Ava Alexandria
