Vanishing British Columbia Michael Kluckner,2011-11-01 The old buildings and historic places of British Columbia form a kind of roadside memory a tangible link with stories of settlement change and abandonment that reflect the great themes of our history With small towns declining and old rural properties changing so little of the history of these places has been recorded in museums or archives and so much of it may disappear as families disperse and memories dim More than a decade ago Michael Kluckner began painting these dots on his personal map of the province in a watercolour sketchbook In 1999 after he put a few of the sketches on his website a network of correspondents emerged that eventually led him to the family letters photo albums and memories all from a disappearing era of the province Vanishing British Columbia is a record of these places and the stories they tell It combines engaging and insightful historical commentary with over 160 of the author s original paintings It has an exceptional assortment of historic imagery including old postcards architectural plans and photographs The study of roadside memory demonstrates the visceral connection that people especially those who are part of the rural to urban diaspora of modern times have for the sites of their family memories On a grander scale this approach leads to a broader understanding of more abstract historical themes and of the province s history and culture It also presents a compelling argument for stewardship of regional history in the face of urbanization and globalization

European Identity and the Representation of Islam in the Mainstream Press Salomi Boukala,2018-07-17 This book combines media studies and linguistics with theories of national and supranational identity to offer an interdisciplinary approach to the study of European identity ies and news discourses Taking representations of Islamist terrorism and Turkey s accession to the European Union as case studies it analyses the discursive construction of supranational European identity through the discursive distinction of Us and Them Moreover it compares the media s representations of the Other in different socio political moments in Europe from times of European integration 2004 5 to the European dystopia 2015 16 through the discourse analysis of specific Greek British and French newspapers This timely work synthesizes classic argumentative approaches and Gramscian thought in the study of media discourses by focusing on the Aristotelian concept of topos and introducing the concept of hegemonic knowledge This pioneering work will appeal to scholars across the fields of linguistics social anthropology European politics and media studies Hazardous and Industrial Waste Proceedings,31st
