Communicating Conflict Multilingual Case Studies Of The News Media:

Communicating Conflict Elizabeth Thomson, P. R. R. White, 2008-03-28 Communicating Conflict brings together a collection of multilingual case studies drawn from the international media. The contributors use methodologies drawn from Critical Discourse Analysis and Systemic Functional Linguistics to explore how these texts overtly or covertly advance particular value positions and world views. They pay particular attention to how the reader is positioned with respect to the events being described and using appraisal theory the various voices which are referenced by the text. The Routledge Handbook of Translation Studies Carmen Millán, Francesca Bartrina, 2013 The Routledge Handbook of Translation Studies provides a comprehensive state of the art account of the complex field of translation studies. Written by leading specialists from around the world, this volume brings together authoritative original articles on pressing issues including the current status of the field and its interdisciplinary nature, the problematic definition of the object of study, the various theoretical frameworks, the research methodologies available. The handbook also includes discussion of the most recent theoretical, descriptive and applied research as well as glimpses of future directions within the field and an extensive up to date bibliography. The Routledge Handbook of Translation Studies is an indispensable resource for postgraduate students of translation studies. The Discourse of News Values Monika Bednarek, Helen Caple, 2017 The Discourse of News Values breaks new ground in multimodal news discourse, offering the first book-length treatment of the discursive analysis of news values and the construction of newsworthiness. The book explores how the news is sold, made newsworthy to audiences through the semiotic resources of language and image, providing a new analytical framework which can be used by other researchers in their own subsequent studies. Weibo News Package: a Systemic Functional Perspective on the Text-Reader Relationship Juan He, 2025-01-07 This book offers an academic dialogue between news values construction and readers' evaluative response in Weibo news package from the interpersonal perspective. The study focuses on the under-researched field of news reception, i.e. how the media reader relationship can be influenced by readers' feedback. By combining multimodal discourse analysis and corpus methods, this book aims to address the following three research questions regarding the text-reader relationship in Weibo news package: 1. what are the gains and losses in the transfer of news values constructed across platforms and news media? 2. how are Chinese language and emoji collaborated to realize attitudinal meanings and advance readers' positions in news comments? 3. how does readers' response overlap or mismatch with particular news value in a story across news text, reader relations, reader-reader relations and extra-text reader relations? The book has social, theoretical and pedagogical implications for the changing landscape of Chinese news discourse and audience studies. Socially, the findings of news and comments analysis show that news value decisions can be negotiated due to readers' active engagement via the social media commenting function. Theoretically, a responsive model of evaluative readings has been built for a better understanding of social media multimodal comments through the lens of reading positions and emoji-text interactions. The book is of interest to researchers in media and communication studies but can also be used as a reference book for under graduate students in social semiotics linguistics and journalism to learn how to analyze multimodal and interactive news texts on social media by triangulation of theories and methodologies Language and Journalism John

Richardson, 2013-09-13 This book is an indispensable cutting edge book for students and researchers of journalism studies seeking a text that illustrates and applies a range of linguistic and discourse analytic approaches to the analysis of journalism While the form function and politics of the language of journalism have attracted scholars from a wide range of academic disciplines too often this analysis has reduced the work of journalists to text characteristics alone In contrast this collection is united by the principle that journalistic discourse is always socially situated and the result of a series of processes produced by journalists in accordance with particular production techniques and in specific institutional settings and as such analysis requires more than the methods offered by linguists The contributors to this book draw on a range of the most prominent theoretical and methodological approaches to media discourse including Conversation Analysis Critical Discourse Analysis the APPRAISAL framework Multi modal Analysis and Rhetoric in making sense of the language of newspapers national local and minority press television and online journalism Written in an engaging style by distinguished academic authorities this book provides a state of the art review of the subject This book was published as a special issue of Journalism Studies

Photojournalism: A Social Semiotic Approach H. Caple, 2013-10-25 This book explores the role of photographs in newspapers and online news analyzing how meanings are made in images and exploring text image relations illustrated with authentic news stories from both print and online news outlets The Routledge Course on Media, Legal and Technical Translation Mahmoud Altarabin, 2020-10-26 The Routledge Course on Media Legal and Technical Translation English Arabic English is an indispensable and engaging coursebook for university students wishing to develop their English Arabic English translation skills in these three text types Taking a practical approach the book introduces Arab translation students to common translation strategies in addition to the linguistic syntactic and stylistic features of media legal and technical texts This book features texts carefully selected for their technical relevance The key features include comprehensive four chapters covering media legal and technical texts which are of immense importance to Arab translation students detailed and clear explanations of the lexical syntactic and stylistic features of English and Arabic media legal and technical texts up to date and practical translation examples in both directions offering students actual experiences of professional translators authentic texts extracted from various sources to promote students familiarity with language features and use extensive range of exercises following each section of the book to enable students to test and practice the knowledge and skills they developed from reading previous sections glossaries following most exercises containing the translation of difficult words and a list of recommended readings following each chapter The easy practical and comprehensive approach adopted in the book makes it a must have coursebook for intermediate and advanced students studying translation between English and Arabic University instructors and professional translators working on translation between English and Arabic will find this book particularly useful News Discourse Monika Bednarek, Helen Caple, 2018-10-19 Now reissued and retypeset this canonical book explores the role of language and images in newspaper radio online and television news The authors introduce useful frameworks for analysing language image and the interaction between the two and illustrate these with authentic news stories from around the English speaking world ranging from the Oktoberfest to environmental disasters to the killing of Osama bin Laden This analysis persuasively illustrates how events are retold in the news and made newsworthy through both language and image This clearly written and accessible introduction to news discourse is essential reading for students lecturers and researchers in linguistics media and journalism studies and semiotics

The Routledge Handbook of Language and Media Colleen Cotter, Daniel Perrin, 2017-08-04 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Media provides an accessible and comprehensive overview of state of the art research in media linguistics This handbook analyzes both language theory and practice demonstrating the vital role of this research in understanding language use in society With over thirty chapters contributed by leading academics from around the world this handbook addresses issues of language use form structure ideology practice and culture in the context of both traditional and new communication media investigates mediated language use in public spheres organizations and personal communication including newspaper journalism broadcasting and social media examines the interplay of language and media from both linguistic and media perspectives discussing auditory and visual media and graphic modes as well as language and gender multilingualism and language change analyzes the advantages and shortcomings of current approaches within media linguistics research and outlines avenues for future research The Routledge Handbook of Language and Media is a must have survey of this key field and is essential reading for those interested in media linguistics

Evaluation Across Newspaper Genres Jonathan Ngai, 2022-05-08 Evaluation Across Newspaper Genres Hard News Stories Editorials and Feature Articles is the first book length study of evaluation or stance in three major newspaper genres hard news stories editorials and feature articles the last of which is a Cinderella genre in linguistic studies It offers a fresh approach to exploring the ways in which evaluation or stance contributes to the construction of the three newspaper genres each with a distinct communicative purpose Key features include using a 900 000 word comparable corpus of newspaper texts arranged by genre and topic domain drawing on a specially developed framework of analysis with a strong orientation to news values carrying out structural analysis by creating sub corpora of different parts of newspaper texts and adopting a functional approach to evaluation in newspaper discourse Evaluation Across Newspaper Genres amply demonstrates that evaluation plays a vital and yet dynamic role in the construction of hard news stories editorials and feature articles by performing a great variety of discourse functions In doing so the book also illuminates such important linguistic concepts as specificity variation and textual colligation Providing a new and unifying perspective on evaluation as a prime driver of text construction it will be of interest and use to researchers teachers and students of English language applied linguistics and journalism
