De Politionele Acties:

De politionele acties Pierre Heijboer, 1979 Overzicht van de militaire strijd tussen Nederland en de Republiek Indonesië in de jaren 1947-1948 Gangsters and Revolutionaries Robert Cribb, 2008-10 Gangsters and Revolutionaries is the first in depth study of one of the people's armies which emerged from the chaos at the close of World War II in Indonesia to join the struggle for Indonesian independence in 1945. It traces the story of the People's Militia of Greater Jakarta from its origins as a loose network of petty criminals and labor bosses in the slums of urban Jakarta and the feudal estates of the surrounding countryside to its destruction at the hands of the Indonesian army in the late 1940s. This book examines the social basis of the Indonesian revolution especially the ways in which the revolutionary forces made use of existing social structures in mobilizing a popular following. It also highlights the painful process by which the new Indonesian state discarded and suppressed groups which had been instrumental in its own rise to power. Archival records, contemporary newspapers and interviews with survivors have been used to shed new light on the early history of the Indonesian army showing a tangled politics in which regular and irregular units, general staff officers and the Ministry of Defense vied for influence and struggled to formulate a strategy for guerrilla war. Gangsters and Revolutionaries introduces a host of unexpected but fascinating characters from the cat-eating General Mustopo and the implacable Haji Darip to the gangster unit which saw service with the Dutch as Her Majesty's Irregular Troops. Robert Cribb is Senior Fellow in Indonesian History at the Australian National University. His research focuses on Indonesian national identity, mass violence, environmental politics and historical geography. He is the author of the Historical Atlas of Indonesia 2000. De Politionele acties Koen Vidal, Mireille Berman, 1994 De politionele acties; de strijd om "Indië" 1945/1949 Pierre Heijboer, 1979 The Dutch-Indonesian War 1945-49 Marc Lohnstein, 2023-06-22 Highly detailed and colourful, this account illustrates the struggle of Indonesian forces in their War of Independence against the Netherlands following the surrender of occupying Japanese forces in 1945. Following on from MAA 521 Royal Netherlands East Indies Army 1936-42 and completing the coverage of the post World War II wars of decolonization, The Dutch Indonesian War 1945-49 describes the Japanese surrender in September 1945 which left a power vacuum in the colonial Dutch East Indies, Indonesia. Using vivid colour illustrations and rare photos, this title depicts the various forces involved in the struggle for Indonesia: the British Indian Army troops sent to key areas to disarm Japanese garrisons; the Indonesian nationalists who immediately proclaimed an independent Republic; remaining Japanese troops; and the Dutch forces which arrived in 1946. The wide dispersion of populations and their ethnic, religious and political differences ensured that the struggle which followed was complex. Fragmented bands of nationalist pemuda insurgents were slowly brought together under command of a republican army: the BKR, later TKR, and finally the TNI, complete with naval and air elements. But stubborn negotiations alternated with bouts of major fighting. This book details how the nationalists were defeated by Dutch and Dutch-led local forces in urban areas, e.g. during Operations Product and Crow, 1947 and 1948, but how their guerrillas evaded Dutch troops in the jungle hills and swamps Illustrating a wide range of uniforms insignia personal weapons and equipment this study showcases the troops and armour involved in the conflict

Collective Memory and the Dutch East Indies Paul M.M. Doolan, 2025-10-01 Collective Memory and the Dutch East Indies Unremembering Decolonization examines the afterlife of decolonization in the collective memory of the Netherlands It offers a new perspective on the cultural history of representing the decolonization of the Dutch East Indies and maps out how a contested collective memory was shaped Taking a transdisciplinary approach and applying several theoretical frames from literary studies sociology cultural anthropology and film theory the author reveals how mediated memories contributed to a process of what he calls unremembering He analyses in detail a broad variety of sources including novels films documentaries radio interviews memoirs and historical studies to reveal how five decades of representing and remembering decolonization fed into an unremembering by which some key notions were silenced or ignored The author concludes that historians or the historical guild bear much responsibility for the unremembering of decolonization in Dutch collective memory

History in Cultural Studies: War Excesses in the Former Dutch Indies Rodney Westerlaken, Currently the excesses of the colonial war between The Netherlands and Indonesia in the former Dutch Indies are being re evaluated and interpreted in The Netherlands More and more reports photos and confessions appear showing a different truth than the one that is generally accepted in The Netherlands Marx said that people make history but never in conditions of their own making This essay evaluates the perspective of cultural studies in a historical context

The West New Guinea Debacle C.L.M. Penders, 2021-10-01 This is a history which deals with the end of the Dutch colonial rule the early independent Indonesia the West New Guinea question and the emergence of Papuan nationalism The book chiefly concentrates on Dutch policies and perspectives which have so far generally been ignored in existing English language publications Netherlands Indonesian relations between 1950 and 1958 are treated in depth with a description and analysis of the struggle for power between the early more Western attuned and economic rationalist cabinets on the support of which the fate of the vast Netherlands controlled export economy was dependent and the masses driven by Sukarno and the populist parties West New Guinea and Papua nationalism began as early as the 1920s and 1930s and by the early 1950s the Dutch had set about guiding the Papuans towards independence This policy had to be aborted however with the threat of an Indonesian invasion and the unwillingness of the US to provide armed support to Dutch forces As a result Australia too was reluctantly forced to abandon the Dutch Australia was forced to accept the inevitable It had actively encouraged the Netherlands to hold onto West New Guinea completed agreements on economic and social cooperation and conducted in depth studies about a possible Australia Dutch defence system against Indonesian aggression Without US military support however the situation became untenable This book will be required for those seeking to understand the genesis of the situation in West New Guinea today where Papuan nationalism is again in the ascendant following the recent dramatic events leading to the independence of East Timor

Co published with Crawford House Publishing      Ending Empire Hendrik Spruyt, 2005 At the dawn of the twentieth century imperial powers controlled most of the globe Within a few decades after World War II many of the great empires had dissolved and more recently multinational polities have similarly disbanded This process of reallocating patterns of authority from internal hierarchy to inter state relations proved far more contentious in some cases than in others While some governments exited the colonial era without becoming embroiled in lengthy conflicts others embarked on courses that drained their economies compelled huge sacrifices and caused domestic upheaval and revolution What explains these variations in territorial policy More specifically why do some governments have greater latitude to alter existing territorial arrangements whereas others are constrained in their room for maneuver In Ending Empire Hendrik Spruyt argues that the answer lies in the domestic institutional structures of the central governments Fragmented polities provide more opportunities for hard liners to veto concessions to nationalist and secessionist demands thus making violent conflict more likely Spruyt examines these dynamics in the democratic colonial empires of Britain France and the Netherlands He then turns to the authoritarian Portuguese empire and the break up of the Soviet Union Finally the author submits that this theory which speaks to the political dynamics of partition can be applied to other contested territories including those at the heart of the Arab Israeli conflict
