Japanese Horror Cinema and Deleuze Rachel Elizabeth Barraclough, 2022-01-13 Using theories of national transnational and world cinema and genre theories and psychoanalysis as the basis of its argument Japanese Horror Cinema and Deleuze argues that these understandings of Japanese horror films can be extended in new ways through the philosophy of Deleuze In particular the complexities and nuances of how films like Ju On The Grudge 2002 Audition 1999 and Kairo 2001 and beyond form dynamic transformative global networks between industries directors and audiences can be considered Furthermore understandings of how key horror tropes and motifs apply to these films and others more broadly such as the idea of the monstrous feminine can be transformed allowing these models to become more flexible

New Philosophies of Film Robert Sinnerbrink, 2022-07-28 What can philosophy teach us about cinema Can cinema transform how we understand philosophy How should we describe the competing approaches to philosophizing on film New Philosophies of Film answers these questions by offering a lucid introduction to the exciting developments and contentious debates within the philosophy of film Mapping out the conceptual terrain it examines both analytic and continental approaches to cinema and puts forward a pluralist film philosophy grounded in practical examples from film documentaries and television series Now thoroughly updated to showcase the most recent developments in the field this 2nd edition features New chapters on phenomenology cinematic ethics philosophical documentary film and television as philosophy incorporating feminist socio political ethical and ecological approaches to cinema Contemporary case studies including Carol Roma Melancholia two Derrida documentaries and the Netflix series Black Mirror Expanded coverage of Gilles Deleuze and Stanley Cavell two of the most influential philosophers of film An updated bibliography filmography and reading lists with links to online resources to support further study Demonstrating how the film philosophy encounter can open up new paths for thinking New Philosophies of Film is an essential resource for putting interdisciplinary inquiry into practice

Fashion Remains Marco Pecorari, 2021-01-28 Fashion ephemera from catalogues and invitations to press releases have long been overlooked by the fashion industry and fashion academics Fashion Remains redresses the balance putting these objects centre stage and focusing on the wider creative practice of contemporary fashion designers photographers graphic designers make up artists and many more Fashion ephemera are considered not as disposable promotional devices but as windows into hidden networks of collaboration and value creation in the fashion system Taking an interdisciplinary approach Fashion Remains explores the unseen and privately circulated fashion ephemera produced by today's most prominent international fashion designers such as Margiela Yamamoto and Raf Simons Showcasing a unique archive of materials it focuses on Antwerp's avant garde fashion scene and reveals the potential of these ephemeral objects to evoke and call into question material and immaterial knowledge about the fashion industry's actors practices and ideologies

Cormac McCarthy's Borders and Landscapes Louise Jillett, 2016-10-06 Cormac McCarthy's work is attracting an increasing number of scholars and critics from a range of disciplines within the humanities and beyond from political philosophy to linguistics and from musicology to various branches of the sciences Cormac McCarthy's Borders and Landscapes contributes to this developing field of research investigating the way McCarthy

s writings speak to other works within the broader fields of American literature international literature border literature and other forms of comparative literature It also explores McCarthy s literary antecedents and the movements out of which his work has emerged such as modernism romanticism naturalism eco criticism genre based literature western southern gothic folkloric traditions and mythology The Sacred and the Cinema Sheila J. Nayar, 2012-03-29 For more than half a century now scholars have debated over what comprises a genuinely religious film one that evinces an authentic manifestation of the sacred Often these scholars do so by pitting the successful films against those which propagate an inauthentic spiritual experience with the biblical spectacular serving as their most notorious candidate This book argues that what makes a filmic manifestation of the sacred true or authentic may say more about a spectator or critic s particular way of knowing as influenced by alphabetic literacy than it does about the aesthetic or philosophical and sometimes even faith based dimensions of the sacred onscreen Engaging with everything from Hollywood religious spectacles Hindu mythologicals and an international array of films revered for their transcendental style The Sacred and the Cinema unveils the epistemic pressures at the heart of engaging with the sacred onscreen The book also provides a valuable summation of the history of the sacred as a field of study particularly as that field intersects with film
