Film Noir Pettey Homer B. Pettey, 2014-11-11 Explores the development of film noir as a cultural and artistic phenomenon This book traces the development of what we know as film noir from the proto noir elements of Feuillade's silent French crime series and German Expressionism to the genre's mid twentieth century popularization and influence on contemporary global media By employing experimental lighting effects oblique camera angles distorted compositions and shifting points of view film noir's style both creates and comments upon a morally adumbrated world where the alienating effects of the uncanny the fetishistic and the surreal dominate What drew original audiences to film noir is an immediate recognition of this modern social and psychological reality Much of the appeal of film noir concerns its commentary on social anxieties its cynical view of political and capitalist corruption and its all too brutal depictions of American modernity This book examines the changing often volatile shifts in representations of masculinity and femininity as well as the genre's complex relationship with Afro American culture observable through noir's musical and sonic experiments Key features Traces the history of film noir from its aesthetic antecedents through its mid century popularization to its influence on contemporary global media Discusses the influence of literary and artistic sources on the development of film noir Includes extensive bibliographies filmographies and recommended noir film viewing Concludes with a reflective chapter by Alain Silver and James Ursini on their own influential studies and collections on film noir criticism Argentine Cinema David George, Gizella Meneses, 2017-12-22 Argentine Cinema From Noir to Neo Noir examines the phenomenon of Argentine film noir Beginning with definitions of film noir and its international iterations the book presents a history of the development of film noir and neo noir in Argentina from the 1940s to the present as well as a technical aesthetic and socio historical analysis of such recent Argentine neo noir films as The Aura The Secret in Their Eyes and The German Doctor It considers the question of inscription of such classic noirs as Double Indemnity and The Third Man and looks forward to future scholarly work on other Latin American noir and neo noir films especially those produced in Mexico and Brazil Nightmare Alley Mark Osteen, 2013-01-30 Classic film noir offers more than pesky private eyes and beautiful bad girls it explores the quest for the not so attainable American dream Winner of the CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title of the Choice ACRL Desperate young lovers on the lam They Live by Night a cynical con man making a fortune as a mentalist Nightmare Alley a penniless pregnant girl mistaken for a wealthy heiress No Man of Her Own a wounded veteran who has forgotten his own name Somewhere in the Night this gallery of film noir characters challenges the stereotypes of the wise cracking detective and the alluring femme fatale Despite their differences they all have something in common a belief in self reinvention Nightmare Alley is a thorough examination of how film noir disputes this notion at the heart of the American Dream Central to many of these films Mark Osteen argues is the story of an individual trying by dint of hard work or more often illicit enterprises to overcome his or her origins and achieve material success In the wake of World War II the noir genre tested the dream of upward mobility and the ideas of individualism liberty equality and free enterprise that accompany it Employing an impressive array of theoretical perspectives including psychoanalysis art history feminism and music theory and combining close reading with original primary source research Nightmare Alley proves both the diversity of classic noir and its potency This provocative and wide ranging study revises and refreshes our understanding of noir s characters themes and cultural significance
