Criticisms on 'The Origin of Species' From 'The Natural History Review', 1864 Huxley Thomas Henry, 2016-06-21 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy Landmark Essays on Rhetorical Criticism Thomas W. Benson, 2020-08-18 This book is an anthology of landmark essays in rhetorical criticism In historical usage a landmark marks a path or a boundary as a metaphor in social and intellectual history landmark signifies some act or event that marks a significant achievement or turning point in the progress or decline of human effort In the history of an academic discipline the historically established senses of landmark are mixed together jostling to set out and protect the turfmarkers of academic specialization aligning footnotes to signify the beacons that have guided thought and against these conservative tendencies attempting to contribute fresh insights that tempt others along new trails The editor has chosen essays for this collection that give some sense of the history of rhetorical criticism in this century especially as it has been practiced in the discipline of speech communication He also emphasizes materials that may illustrate where the discipline conceives itself to be going how it has marked its boundaries how it has established beacons to invite safety or warn us from the rocks and how it has sought to preserve a tradition by subjecting it to constant revision and struggle In the hope of providing some coherence the scope of this collection is limited to rhetorical
