CROSSCURRENTS CULTURES COMMUNITIES TECHNOLOGIES is a combined print and online text webtext designed to provide readings and activities that allow students not only to critically examine mass culture and the media that circulates it but also to engage rhetorically with electronic communication presentation and web authoring and digital imaging technologies CROSSCURRENTS is available as a full color printed text and as an electronic text with additional links to YouTube and websites chosen by the authors to extend the conversation and learning experience CROSSCURRENTS represents the first in a new generation of texts that doesn't make instructors choose between teaching traditional rhetorical concerns and helping students develop as writers and readers of electronic media Important Notice Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version Resources in

Education, 2001-10 Oil Shock Elisabetta Bini, Giuliano Garavini, Federico Romero, 2016-05-27 The 1973 Oil Shock is considered a turning point in the history of the twentieth century At the time it seemed to mark a definitive shift from the era of low priced oil to the era of expensive oil For most Western industrialized countries it became the symbolic marker of the end of an era For many oil producers it translated into an unprecedented control over their energy resources and completed the process of decolonization leading to a profound redefinition of international relations This book provides an analysis of the crisis and its global political and economic impact It features contributions from a range of perspectives and approaches including political economic environmental international and social history The authors examine the origins of what was defined as an oil revolution by the oil producing countries as well as the far reaching effects of the shock on the Cold War and decolonization on international energy markets and the global economy In doing so they help place the event in its historical context as a key moment in the transformation of the international economy and of North South relations

Future Earth Diana Dalbotten, Gillian Roehrig, Patrick Hamilton, 2014-04-08 Earth now is dominated by both biogeophysical and anthropogenic processes as represented in these two images from a simulation of aerosols Dust red from the Sahara sweeps west across the Atlantic Ocean Sea salt blue rises into the atmosphere from winds over the North Atlantic and from a tropical cyclone in the Indian Ocean Organic and black carbon green from biomass burning is notable over the Amazon and Southeast Asia Plumes of sulfate white from fossil fuel burning are particularly prominent over northeastern North America and East Asia If present trends of dust emissions and fossil fuel burning continues in what we call the Anthropocene epoch then we could experience high atmospheric CO₂ levels leading to unusual warming rarely experienced in Earth's history This book focuses on human influences on land ocean and the atmosphere to determine if human activities are operating within or beyond the safe zones of our planet's biological chemical and physical systems Volume highlights include Assessment of civic understanding of Earth and its future Understanding the role of undergraduate geoscience research and community driven research on the Anthropocene Effective communication of science to a broader audience that would include the public the K 12 science community or populations underrepresented in the sciences Public outreach on climate education geoscience alliance and scientific reasoning Future Earth is a valuable practical guide for scientists from all disciplines including geoscientists museum curators science educators and public policy makers 2012-2013 College Admissions Data Sourcebook Northeast Edition , American Universities and Colleges James J. Cross Currents Cultures Communities Technologies New Solutions Available For The First Time: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Cross Currents Cultures Communities Technologies New Solutions Available For The First Time : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
