Critical Minds And Discerning Hearts A Spirituality Of Multicultural Teaching:

Critical Minds and Discerning Hearts Kathleen Talvacchia, 2003-06-01 This book goes beyond the how to's of teaching to offer a pedagogy founded in spirituality providing teachers with the elements necessary to create a truly multicultural classroom

Proleptic Pedagogy Sondra H. Matzhaei, Nancy R. Howell, 2014-06-17 Could we have imagined how much theological education would change in the new millennium Shifting needs of students classrooms and churches have demanded constant revisions of the curriculum course design classroom technology and pedagogical strategies Saint Paul School of Theology felt the tide of change within our own walls and designed a project called Proleptic Pedagogy to address three distinct pedagogical challenges for the future of theological education First instead of fitting new technologies into old pedagogies how are teaching and learning transformed by shifting needs of students who are digital natives digital immigrants or distance learners Second instead of reactive strategies what pedagogy proactively eliminates accommodations because courses are designed with flexibility and openness to diverse learning styles disabilities and needs Third instead of engaging student diversity with the tools of the 1960s what new teaching and learning strategies anticipate future student racial and ethnic demographics and interracial educational experiences This volume of essays narrates our classroom stories teases out pedagogical issues examines pedagogical literature reflects on theology of pedagogy and constructs pedagogical proposals with an open invitation for other theological educators to join our conversation about the future of theological education

The Spiritual and Educational Vision of Parker J. Palmer Elena Soto, 2024-02-09 Have you wrestled with the complexity of classroom teaching Have you often wondered what might be impeding your performance in the classroom Parker J Palmer's exploration into teaching and the problems that teachers encounter offers practical theories that address the questions one has or perhaps might not have thought to ask This book is about Parker J Palmer's theories of education interwoven with his spiritual vision of education Undergirding the spiritual aspect of his vision is his theory about the significance of the teacher's authentic self Within the narrative is the personal story of one teacher's daunting experiences as she ventured into the field of teaching after a career in the corporate world Meeting Palmer while in graduate school and closely studying his work served to modify her perspective about teaching for the better This ultimately changed her as a teacher in ways that could not have occurred had she not had this encounter This book aims to inform as well as to help transform the experience of teaching for both teacher and student

The Routledge International Handbook of Spirituality in Society and the Professions Laszlo Zsolnai, Bernadette Flanagan, 2019-03-15 Increasingly it is being recognized that spirituality defined here as a multiform search for a transcendent meaning of life that connects them to all living beings and brings them in touch with God or Ultimate Reality is an aspect of almost every sphere and aspect of social life It appears in humanity's dealings with nature home and community healing economics and business knowledge and education The Routledge International Handbook of Spirituality in Society and the Professions is a stimulating collection that

Adolescent girls between the ages of fifteen and eighteen shared with Parker and her co authors life stories that show how they struggle to make sense of their experiences of racism sexism classism and heterosexism in light of their belief in God or their concept of a higher divine power The groups of adolescent girls interviewed include Korean Americans African Americans Native Americans Latinas working class whites and lesbians The closing chapter revisits the prominent themes from each chapter challenging those concerned about fostering a spirituality that is life giving for girls who struggle with racism classism sexism and heterosexism In addition it explores the concepts of realization resistance resilience and ritual as four essential components for nurturing a wholesome spirituality in adolescent girls The Formation of Pastoral

Counselors Duane R. Bidwell, Joretta L. Marshall, 2012-11-12 Explore the concept of formation in pastoral counseling from a variety of perspectives Two dozen of the most prominent clinicians and scholars in the field reflect on The Formation of Pastoral Counselors from clinical theological and theoretical perspectives This unique book explores the challenges to the personal and professional formation of pastoral counselors in a cultural and historic context that is radically different from the era when the profession first emerged as a specialized ministry Contributors examine formation from a variety of contexts and perspectives including spirituality and gender address theological education and intercultural issues and present emerging models for pastoral counselors The Formation of Pastoral Counselors is a practical guide for educators working to shape curricula and training programs to the shifting context in which pastoral counselors are formed for ministry service and lifelong learning This unique book examines ideas about appropriate content and processes for the formation of pastoral care professionals and looks at specialized contextual training models that form their emerging identities The book s contributors call on extensive experience in pastoral theology care and counseling to explore the essential components of formation across different contexts how those contextual realities change the delivery systems the epistemological nature of formation reasons for the limited roles that formal theological education and spiritual experience seem to play at the moment and why formation is rarely formally addressed in pastoral counseling training Topics discussed in The Formation of Pastoral Counselors include the turn to formation the goals of theological education core elements of pastoral theology developing spiritual practices diversity pastoral counseling training programs race and ethnicity in the formation of pastoral counselors cultural identity intercultural contexts practical relevancy in training gender identity and sexual orientation economic disparity Models and practices examined in The Formation of Pastoral Counselors include parallel charting clinician narratives group supervision Benedictine spirituality academic and clinical training at the Claremont School of Theology the model of formation at the Virginia Institute of Pastoral Care VIPCare and much more The Formation of Pastoral Counselors is an essential guide for pastoral counselors faculty in pastoral theological care and counseling and training directors in pastoral counseling centers

Asian and Asian American Women in Theology and Religion Kwok Pui-lan, 2020-02-25 This book presents personal narratives and collective ethnography of the emergence and development of Asian and Asian American women s scholarship in theology and religious studies It demonstrates how the authors religious scholarship is based on an embodied epistemology influenced by their social locations Contributors reflect on their understanding of their identity and how this changed over time the contribution of Asian and Asian American women to the scholarship work that they do and their hopes for the future of their fields of study The volume is multireligious and intergenerational and is divided into four parts identities and intellectual journeys expanding knowledge integrating knowledge and practice and dialogue across generations

Embracing Disruptive Coherence Kathleen T. Talvacchia, 2019-04-18 Does anyone need to come out anymore Queer theory has challenged the idea of coming out as problematic for its false binary and essentialized version of identity If gender is a socially constructed performativity then what does coming out mean At the same time we live in a society that still struggles with structures of power that define what is considered normal and sanctions those who transgress The intersectionality of gender with race class ethnicity nationality abilities religion age and other positional markers challenge a simplified belief that coming out is not necessary Therefore in the lived experience of many persons coming out still matters This book initiates a different theological conversation about coming out It argues that rather than the declaration of an identity category coming out can be understood as the erotic ethical practice of truth telling The formation of conscience and moral integrity embody the two pillars of this erotic practice Coming out understood as disruptive coherence is the erotic ethical practice of truth telling grounded in our deepest desires to be known authentically in community

Educating for Civic Dialogue in an Age of Uncivil Discourse Dennis Gunn, 2020-03-23 Educating for Civic Dialogue in an Age of Uncivil Discourse addresses an urgent challenge to help students learn the skills of civic engagement by offering a framework for authentic cosmopolitan education As an invitation to ongoing civil dialogue with diverse voices in the classroom the book aims to foster the skills of democratic and global citizenship that allow students to find their voice as local national and global citizens outside of the classroom It suggests practical ways that teachers can promote the skills of attentive listening intelligent questioning reasonable positioning and responsible dialogue in order to encourage authentic civic discourse It also outlines specific pedagogical strategies designed to foster students cosmopolitan competencies as democratic and global citizens

Minjung and Process Hiheon Kim, 2009 This book reconstructs the legacy of Korean minjung theology by reformulating its essential ideas in a dialogue with process thought In a minimal sense this study is a theological reinterpretation of the doctrine of the minjung messiah an idea which historically suffered from a misunderstanding that minjung theology created a messianic confusion while replacing christology and soteriology by a radical anthropology This erroneous conception occurred when the idea was placed within the philosophically dualistic framework of traditional doctrines in which the work of minjung is totally separated from the work of Christ In order to avoid such a dualistic understanding the author critically adopts process panentheism and makes minjung ideas more communicable and more comprehensive in current theological religious and philosophical debates Beyond defending the idea of the minjung messiah he also argues for an inclusive minjung hermeneutics that promotes the fundamental insight of minjung theology in philosophical clarity Through minjung hermeneutics minjung theology expands its practical concern and overcomes the theoretical nihilism in postmodern studies
