Cross Channel Vintage International:

Cross Channel Julian Barnes, 2012-12-18 No one has a better perspective on life on both sides of the channel than Julian Barnes In these exquisitely crafted stories spanning several centuries he takes as his universal theme the British in France from the last days of a reclusive English composer the beef consuming navvies labouring on the Paris Rouen railway to a lonely woman mourning the death of her brother on the battlefields of the Somme Combining the intellectual audacity of A History of the World in 10 1/2 Chapters with the francophilia of the acclaimed Flaubert's Parrot Julian Barnes explores the English experience of France over the centuries with dazzling wit and sophistication Transnational Railway Cultures

Benjamin Fraser, Steven D. Spalding, 2021-10-15 Since the advent of train travel railways have compressed space and crossed national boundaries to become transnational icons evoking hope dread progress or obsolescence in different cultural domains Spanning five continents and a diverse range of contexts this collection offers an unprecedentedly broad survey of global representations of trains From experimental novels to Hollywood blockbusters the works studied here chart fascinating routes across a remarkably varied cultural landscape Cross Channel Julian Barnes, 1997-02-11 In his first collection of short stories Barnes explores the narrow body of water containing the vast sea of prejudice and misapprehension which lies between England and France with acuity humor and compassion For whether Barnes's English characters come to France as conquerors or hostages laborers athletes or aesthetes what they discover alongside rich food and barbarous sexual and religious practices is their own ineradicable Englishness The ten stories that make up Cross Channel introduce us to a plethora of intriguing original and sometimes ill fated characters Elegantly conceived and seductively written Cross Channel is further evidence of Barnes's wizardry Cross-Channel Modernisms Claire Davison, 2020-03-27 Explores modernist aesthetics and cultural exchange in Britain France and beyond Offers cutting edge explorations of different aspects of artistic exchange between Britain and France written by experts on both sides of the Channel Provides original close readings of canonical and marginalised modernist texts Opens up new conceptual paradigms by probing multiple meanings related to crossing and channelling modernism Organises chapters around three key themes of translating fashioning mediating that intervene in the new modernist studies Described by Katherine Mansfield in 1921 as a great cold sword between you and your dear love Adventure in the early twentieth century the English Channel or La Manche in French represented both a political and intellectual barrier between European avant gardism and British restraint and a bridge for cultural connection and aesthetic innovation Organised around key terms Translating Fashioning and Mediating this book presents ten original essays by scholars working on both sides of the Channel Cross Channel Modernisms historicises artistic exchanges in Britain France and beyond and proposes a rich conceptual apparatus of crossings and channels through which we can read modernism and understand it as emerging from and intervening in an always already shifting multivalent international context International Sport Richard William Cox, 2004 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new

Through the Window Julian Barnes, 2012-11-20 From the bestselling Booker Prize winning author of The Sense of an Ending and one of Britain's greatest writers a brilliant collection of essays on the books and authors that have meant the most to him throughout his illustrious career A blissfully intelligent gathering of literary essays Financial Times In these seventeen essays plus a short story and a special preface A Life with Books Julian Barnes examines the British French and American writers who have shaped his writing as well as the cross currents and overlappings of their different cultures From the deceptiveness of Penelope Fitzgerald to the directness of Hemingway from Kipling's view of France to the French view of Kipling from the many translations of Madame Bovary to the fabulations of Ford Madox Ford from the National Treasure status of George Orwell to the despair of Michel Houellebecq Julian Barnes considers what fiction is and what it can do As he writes Novels tell us the most truth about life what it is how we live it what it might be for how we enjoy and value it and how we lose it

England, England Julian Barnes, 2012-12-18 Grotesque visionary Sir Jack Pitman has an idea Since most people are too lazy to travel from landmark to landmark why not simplify things and create a new England on the Isle of Wight Unfortunately his idea is a huge success and the resulting theme park threatens to supersede the original Called England England it has all the elements of Old England in one convenient location Wander into the new Sherwood Forest and you may spot Robin Hood and his now sexually ambiguous Merrie Men Or take a stroll to see Stonehenge and Anne Hathaway's Cottage enjoy a ploughman's lunch atop the White Cliffs of Dover then pop over to see the Royals now on contract to Sir Jack in their scaled down version of Buckingham Palace Every detail has been considered even the postcards come pre stamped Julian Barnes first novel in six years is a ferociously funny examination of the search for authenticity and truth in a fabricated world

Ground Sea Hilde Van Gelder, 2021-09-15 Imagine a world in which each individual has a fundamental right to be reborn This idle dream haunts Hilde Van Gelder's associative travelogue that takes Allan Sekula's sequence Deep Six Passer au bleu 1996 1998 as a touchstone for a dialogue with more recent artworks zooming in on the borderscape near the Channel Tunnel such as those by Sylvain George and Bruno Serralongue Combining ethnography visual materials political philosophy cultural geography and critical analysis Ground Sea proceeds through an innovative methodological approach Inspired by the meandering writings of W G Sebald Javier Marías and Roland Barthes Van Gelder develops a style both interdisciplinary and personal Resolutely opting for an aquatic perspective Ground Sea offers a powerful meditation on the indifference of an increasingly divided European Union with regard to considerable numbers of persons on the move who find themselves stranded close to Calais The contested Strait of Dover becomes a microcosm where our present global challenges of migration climate change human rights and neoliberal surveillance technology converge Read more on the book's dedicated website www.groundsea.be
