Crossing Over Narratives Of Palliative Care:

Crossing Over David Barnard, Anna M. Towers, Patricia Boston, Yanna Lambrinidou, 2000-03-02 Crossing Over provides a unique view of patients families and their caregivers striving together to maintain comfort and hope in the face of incurable illness The narratives weave together emotions physical symptoms spiritual concerns and the stresses of family life as well as the professional and personal challenges of providing hospice and palliative care Based on a vast amount of participant observation and in depth interviews Crossing Over moves far beyond dry technical manuals for symptom control and tired clichés about death with dignity to depict the sights sounds tastes and smells of the daily in patients homes and the palliative care unit It captures the breathtaking diversity of people's aspirations and ideals as they face death and the views of the professionals who care for them Anger and fear tenderness and reconciliation jealousy and love social support and falling through the cracks unexpected courage and unshakable faith all of these are part of facing death in late twentieth century North America and this book brings them to life in an extraordinary portrait of the processes of giving and receiving palliative care

Crossing Over David Barnard, Anna Towers, Patricia Boston, Yanna Lambrinidou, 2023 The revised edition of Crossing Over is a book of stories narratives of giving and receiving palliative care in the context of end of life It is not a textbook that portrays ideal palliative care or that prescribes specific management techniques Instead it presents stories of actual patients and families who have experienced terminal illness with the support of hospice or palliative care teams The narratives are derived from a three year qualitative ethnographic study of the experiences of patients families and caregivers
