Crown Of Aleppo Crown Of Aleppo:

Crown of Aleppo Hayim Tawil, Bernard Schneider, 2010-01-01 In Crown of Aleppo Hayim Tawil and Bernard Schneider tell the incredible story of the survival against all odds of the Aleppo Codex one of the most authoritative and accurate traditional Masoretic texts of the Bible Completed circa 939 in Tiberias the Crown was created by exacting Tiberian scribes who copied the entire Bible into book form adding annotations vowel and cantillation marks and precise commentary Praised by Torah scholars for centuries after its writing the Crown passed through history until the 15th century when it was housed in the Great Synagogue of Aleppo Syria When the synagogue was burned in the 1947 pogrom the codex was thought to be destroyed lost forever That is where its great mystery begins Miraculously a significant portion of the Crown of Aleppo survived the fire and was smuggled from the synagogue ruins to an unknown location presumably within the Aleppan Jewish community Ten years later the surviving pages of the codex were secretly brought to Israel and finally moved to their current location in the Israel Museum in Jerusalem The Aleppo Codex Matti Friedman, 2013-05-14 Winner of the 2014 Sami Rohr Prize for Jewish Literature A thousand years ago the most perfect copy of the Hebrew Bible was written It was kept safe through one upheaval after another in the Middle East and by the 1940s it was housed in a dark grotto in Aleppo Syria and had become known around the world as the Aleppo Codex Journalist Matti Friedman s true life detective story traces how this precious manuscript was smuggled from its hiding place in Syria into the newly founded state of Israel and how and why many of its most sacred and valuable pages went missing It s a tale that involves grizzled secret agents pious clergymen shrewd antiquities collectors and highly placed national figures who as it turns out would do anything to get their hands on an ancient decaying book What it reveals are uncomfortable truths about greed state cover ups and the fascinating role of historical treasures in creating a national identity Jewish Property Claims Against Arab Countries Michael R. Fischbach, 2008-08-26 In the twenty years that followed the Arab Israeli war of 1948 800 000 Jews left their homes in Syria Egypt Iraq Yemen Libya Morocco and several other Arab countries Although the causes of this exodus varied restrictive governmental measures and an outburst of anti Semitic feeling during and after the war were major factors Some of these Mizrahi Jews most of whom were not active Zionists were forced to leave behind property of great financial and ancestral value property that was sometimes seized by the governments of the countries they fled In this book Michael R Fischbach who has dedicated years to studying land and property ownership in the context of the Arab Israeli conflict reconstructs the circumstances in which Jewish communities left the Arab world Conducting meticulous and exhaustive research in the archives of Washington D C Jerusalem London New York and elsewhere Fischbach offers the most authoritative estimates to date of the value of the property left behind He also describes the process by which various actors most importantly the State of Israel linked the resolution of Jewish property claims to the fate of Palestinian refugee property claims following the 1948 war Fischbach considers the implications of contemporary developments such as America s invasion of Iraq Israeli Palestinian negotiations and Libya's attempt to shed its international pariah status which have impacted pending claims and will affect claims in the future Overall he finds that many international Jewish organizations have supported the link between the claims of Mizrahi Jews and those of Palestinian refugees hindering serious efforts to obtain restitution or compensation
