The
Noonday
Demon

"All encompassing, brave, and deeply humane. . . .

It is open-minded, critically informed, and poetic at the same time, and despite the nature of its subject it is written with far too much élan and elegance ever to become depressing itself."

Thomas Merton and the Noonday Demon Donald Grayson, 2015-10-29 In Thomas Merton and the Noonday Demon Donald Grayson transforms a long neglected cache of letters found in an ancient monastery into a book that offers new insight into the author of these letters Thomas Merton the renowned spiritual writer At the time of their writing the mid 1950s he was living as a Trappist monk at the Abbey of Gethsemani in Kentucky Having reached an impasse in his monastic vocation he decided to leave Gethsemani for the Monastery of Camaldoli in Italy Camaldoli at that time bucolic and peaceful outwardly was inwardly riven by a pre Vatican II culture war whereas Gethsemani which he tried so hard to leave became when he was given his hermitage there in 1965 his place to recover Eden In walking with Merton on this journey and reading the letters he wrote and received at the time we find ourselves asking as he did with so much energy and honesty the deep questions that we may well need to answer in our own lives Hooked Howard Brody, 2007 This book explores the controversial relationship between physicians and the pharmaceutical industry identifies the ethical tensions and controversies and proposes numerous reforms both for medicine's own professional integrity and for effective public regulation of the industry The SAGE Encyclopedia of Pharmacology and Society Sarah E. Why Suicide Is Amoral Robyn Gaier,2024-06-25 Moral evaluations of actions are only appropriate for actions within the moral domain Actions outside of the moral domain are amoral actions In Why Suicide Is Amoral: A Philosophical Account Robyn Gaier emphasizes the role of agency in determining whether an action is within the moral domain If an agent lacks either deliberative agency or moral agency then their action is amoral An agent lacks deliberative agency if they cannot evaluate and act upon reasons and moral agency if they cannot act upon moral reasons Actions in which such agencies are compromised are also amoral actions In treating actions of suicide while granting their diversity this book traces them to the loss or threat of loss of basic psychological needs Gaier argues that when basic psychological needs are lost or under threat an agent's deliberative agency moral agency or both are either lacking or compromised Hence actions of suicide are amoral and it is a conceptual mistake to attempt the moral evaluation of actions of suicide Furthermore when we regard actions of suicide as within the moral domain we perpetuate a social stigma against suicide

Electroconvulsive Therapy in America Jonathan Sadowsky,2016-11-03 Electroconvulsive Therapy is widely demonized or idealized Some detractors consider its very use to be a human rights violation while some promoters depict it as a miracle the penicillin of psychiatry This book traces the American history of one of the most controversial procedures in medicine and seeks to provide an explanation of why ECT has been so controversial juxtaposing evidence from clinical science personal memoir and popular culture Contextualizing the controversies about ECT instead of simply engaging in them makes the history of ECT more richly revealing of wider changes in culture and medicine It shows that the application of electricity to the brain to treat illness is not only a physiological event but also one embedded in culturally patterned beliefs about the human body the meaning of sickness and medical authority
