Writing Prompts

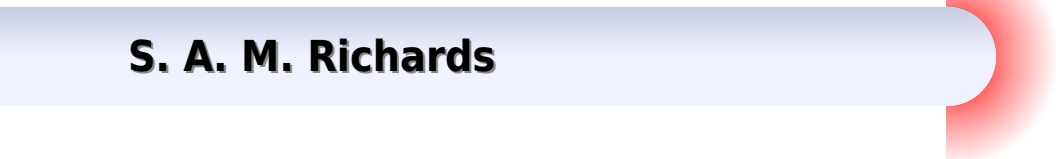

for Adults

- What was your best year ever, so far in your life? Give a timeline of events and describe everything that made it so spectacular.
- If you could visit anywhere on Earth for a one-month vacation, where would you go and what would you do?
- Make your own adult-aged imaginary friend. Describe in detail who they are, what they look like, what you talk about, etc.
- If you have a pet, describe their day from their perspective. No pets? Choose your favorite animal.
- Today is the last day of the planet because a flaming meteor is going to wipe us out at midnight. Describe what the day would be like.
- You've just woke up to discover that your country has been taken over by robots. They decide that humans need to become the new pets of the world.
- You are on a spaceship flying through the universe on your way to Mars to colonize it for humans. Your job is to write down everything you see as the first journalist and report back to Earth.
- Starting today your job is to work on a submarine in search of the Loch Ness Monster or proof the monster doesn't exist. But your day starts out wild when you see a giant eye staring back at you through the windshield under water.
- You are climbing Mount Everest and have almost reached the top when an avalanche separates you from your team. You have all of your equipment and aren't hurt, but you need to get help immediately or you'll die.
- Your goal is to create a weekly menu with meals all of a certain color for each day. On Monday, all meals have to be red, Tuesday they are orange, etc. Bonus points if you include foods your family will actually eat and enjoy.
- You get to meet your hero. Tell what happens during your visit.
- You are walking your dog when you see [insert favorite celebrity] walking toward you with their dog. They start yelling at you. What do you do?
- You have the technology to invent anything you want to do whatever your imagination thinks up. What is this grand invention, and what happens when you invent it?
- For one day only you are the richest person in history. Describe your spending spree.
