Teetering Ken Rees,2021-03-02 Nearly half of American adults walk a financial tightrope They live paycheck to paycheck in constant danger of job loss or unexpected expenses Following decades of rising income instability and falling savings not to mention the twin economic upheavals of the Great Recession and the COVID 19 pandemic they have become the new normal Rather than treat Tightropers as victims or blame them for their financial decisions Teetering lets them tell their own stories of setbacks sacrifice and perseverance and provides original research into their unique pressures and needs Tightropers deserve support at all stages of their lives to build savings for both daily emergencies and long term retirement Teetering shows how legislators and regulators can make a difference without unintended consequences and how financial technology innovation can help Tightropers manage their money in uncertain times Teetering makes the case for urgent action by financial institutions investors regulators policymakers employers and influencers to recognize and address the financial forces that have pushed the American dream out of reach for so many It proposes common ground solutions that work regardless of political leaning and provides a roadmap for how innovators can serve this growing need and how banks and others can start saying yes to their customers again

Out-Innovate Alexandre "Alex" Lazarow,2020-04-07 The new playbook for innovation and startup success is emerging from beyond Silicon Valley at the frontier Startups have changed the world In the United States many startups such as Tesla Apple and Amazon have become household names The economic value of startups has doubled since 1992 and is projected to double again in the next fifteen years For decades the hot center of this phenomenon has been Silicon Valley This is changing fast Thanks to technology startups are now taking root everywhere from Delhi to Detroit to Nairobi to Sao Paulo Yet despite this globalization of startup activity our knowledge of how to build successful startups is still drawn primarily from Silicon Valley As venture capitalist Alexandre Lazarow shows in this insightful and instructive book this Silicon Valley gospel is due for a refresh and it comes from what he calls the frontier the growing constellation of startup ecosystems outside of the Valley and other major economic centers that now stretches across the globe The frontier is a truly different world where startups often must cope with political or economic instability and lack of infrastructure and where there might be little or no access to angel investors venture capitalists or experienced employee pools Under such conditions entrepreneurs must be creators who build industries rather than disruptors who change them because there are few existing businesses to disrupt The companies they create must be global from birth because local markets are too small They focus on resiliency and sustainability rather than unicorn style growth at any cost With rich and wide ranging stories of frontier innovators from around the world Out Innovate is the new playbook for innovation wherever it has the potential to happen
