Sandrine's Case Thomas H. Cook, 2013-08-06 In this Edgar Award finalist and slow burning intricate thriller a professor falls for his wife all over again while he stands trial for her murder Publishers Weekly starred review Samuel Madison always wondered what Sandrine saw in him He was a meek stuffy doctoral student while she was a beautiful bohemian with limitless talent and imagination On the surface their marriage seemed tranquil jobs at the same small liberal arts college a precocious young daughter and a home filled with art and literature But then one night Sandrine is found dead from an overdose and Samuel is accused of poisoning her As secrets about their tumultuous marriage come to light in the courtroom Samuel must face a town and media convinced of his guilt a daughter whose faith in her father has been shaken to its core and astonishing revelations about his wife who never ceased being a mystery to him Sandrine's Case is a gripping moving and elegiac novel about the evil that can lurk within the heart of a seemingly ordinary man Michael Connelly Cook plays with and against the conventions of the noir mystery to craft a novel deeper and richer than the genre would seem to allow The Columbus Dispatch

ago Ray Campbell was a well intentioned aid worker dedicated to improving conditions in Lubanda a newly independent African country Now a cautious risk management consultant he is forced to reconsider that year of living dangerously when an old friend is found murdered in a New York alley Signs suggest that this recent tragedy is rooted in a more distant one that of Martine Aubert the only woman Ray ever loved whose fate he d sealed with a grievous mistake In Rupala twenty years before I had rolled the dice for a woman who was not even present at the table and how on the outcome of that toss a braver and more knowing heart than mine had been forfeited Martine Aubert was a white native Lubandan farmer whose dream for her homeland put her in conflict with fearsome men intent on its so called development As Ray returns to Lubanda to investigate the cause of his friend s murder he also revisits the passion he d once felt for Martine and vows in her memory to rectify his wrongs A Dancer in the Dust is a gripping story of ill fated love one man s love for an extraordinary woman and one woman s love for her troubled country Not since John Le Carr s The Mission Song have I seen such a loving and sorrowful portrait of modern Africa The News Observer Raleigh Sacrificial Ground Thomas H. Cook,2011-09-06 Edgar Award Finalist A troubled cop obsessively searches for a young girl s killer The young girl lies in a ditch without a scratch on her a white high school student stretched out dead in the black part of Atlanta She was a rich girl from a cold family too genteel for the neighborhood where she died and only the baby in her belly suggests how she might have gotten there For Detective Frank Clemons the scene is far too familiar Too close to how it was when he found his own daughter dead in the woods by her own hand her youthful beauty cruelly ravaged by depression Her suicide ended his marriage and sent him on a downward spiral that has nearly claimed his own life To hang on to sanity he must do everything he can to find justice for the dead Sacrificial Ground is the first book in the Frank Clemons Mysteries but you may enjoy reading the series in any order

Blood Echoes Thomas H. Cook, 2011-09-06 Edgar Award Finalist A true crime account of a vicious massacre and the legal battles that followed It was not a clever killing On May 5 1973 three men escaped from a Maryland prison and disappeared Joined by a fifteen year old brother they surfaced in Georgia where they were spotted joyriding in a stolen car Within a week the four young men were arrested on suspicion of committing one of the most horrific murders in American history Jerry Alday and his family were eating Sunday dinner when death burst through the door of their cozy little trailer Their six bodies are only the beginning of Thomas H Cook's retelling of this gruesome story the horrors continued in the courtroom Based on court documents police records and interviews with the surviving family members this is a chilling look at the evil that can lurk just around the corner

Even Darkness Sings Thomas H Cook, 2018-10-02 Thomas Cook has always been drawn to dark places for the powerful emotions they evoke and for what we can learn from them These lessons are often unexpected and sometimes profoundly intimate but they are never straightforward With his wife and daughter Cook travels across the globe in search of darkness from Lourdes to Ghana from San Francisco to Verdun from the monumental mechanized horror of Auschwitz to the intimate personal grief of a shrine to dead infants in Kamukura Japan Along the way he reflects on what these sites may teach us not only about human history but about our own personal histories During the course of a lifetime of traveling to some of earth's most tragic locals from the leper colony on Molokai to ground zero at Hiroshima he finds not only darkness but a light that can illuminate the darkness within each of us Written in vivid prose this is at once a personal memoir of exploration both external and internal and a strangely heartening look at the radiance and optimism that may be found at the very heart of darkness

Mortal Memory Thomas H. Cook, 2011-09-06 The Edgar Award winning author builds a family portrait in which violence seems both impossible and inevitable surprising and devastating Chicago Tribune Steve Farris was nine years old in 1959 the youngest child in a family that was about to be snuffed out Around four o'clock on an ordinary November afternoon Steve's father loaded his shotgun With calm precision he killed his teenaged son and daughter and then turned the weapon on his wife For two hours he waited for his youngest son to come home from school When Steve did not appear his father drove away disappearing for good Now a successful architect Farris has spent his life avoiding the memories of that dark day But questions from an author writing a book about the crime bring back impressions from the days leading up to the killing For the first time he must confront his awful past and the terrifying possibility that his father had a reason for what he did
