relationship of purism to historical prescriptivism e.g. the influence of grammarians in the 17th and 18th centuries to nationhood e.g. the instrumentalising of purism in the standardisation of Afrikaans or Luxembourgish to modern society e.g. the existence of puristic tendencies in computer chatrooms to folk linguistics e.g. lay perceptions of different varieties of English and to academic linguistics e.g. the presence of puristic notions in the historiography of German or English

The Multilingual Citizen Lisa Lim, Christopher Stroud, Lionel Wee, 2018-02-27 In this ground breaking collection of essays the editors and authors develop the idea of Linguistic Citizenship This notion highlights the importance of practices whereby vulnerable speakers themselves exercise control over their languages and draws attention to the ways in which alternative voices can be inserted into processes and structures that otherwise alienate those they were designed to support The chapters discuss issues of decoloniality and multilingualism in the global South and together retheorize how to accommodate diversity in complexly multilingual multicultural societies Offering a framework anchored in transformative notions of democratic and reflexive citizenship it prompts readers to critically rethink how existing contemporary frameworks such as Linguistic Human Rights rest on disempowering forms of multilingualism that channel discourses of diversity into specific predetermined cultural and linguistic identities
