tendency toward fragmentation of the world into increasingly contentious enclaves of difference ethnicity and resistance Ranging across issues involving film literature and theory as well as history politics economics sociology and anthropology these deeply interdisciplinary essays explore the interwoven forces of globalism and localism in a variety of cultural settings with a particular emphasis on the Asia Pacific region Powerful readings of the new image culture transnational film genre and the politics of spectacle are offered as is a critique of globalization as the latest guise of colonization Articles that unravel the complex links between the global and local in terms of the unfolding narrative of capital are joined by work that illuminates phenomena as diverse as yellow cab interracial sex in Japan machinic desire in Robocop movies and the Pacific Rim city An interview with Fredric Jameson by Paik Nak Chung on globalization and Pacific Rim responses is also featured as is a critical afterword by Paul Bov Positioning at the crossroads of an altered global terrain this volume the first of its kind analyzes the evolving transnational imaginary the full scope of contemporary cultural production by which national identities of political allegiance and economic regulation are being undone and in which imagined communities are being reshaped at both the global and local levels of everyday existence

The Asian Cinema Experience Stephen Teo, 2013 This book explores the range and dynamism of contemporary Asian cinemas covering East Asia China Japan South Korea Hong Kong Taiwan Southeast Asia Thailand Singapore Malaysia South Asia Bollywood and West Asia Iran in order to discover what is common about them and to engender a theory or concept of Asian Cinema It goes beyond existing work which provides a field survey of Asian cinema probing more deeply into the field of Asian Cinema arguing that Asian Cinema constitutes a separate pedagogical subject and putting forward an alternative cinematic paradigm The book covers styles including the works of classical Asian Cinema masters and specific genres such as horror films and Bollywood and Anime two very popular modes of Asian Cinema spaces including artistic use of space and perspective in Chinese cinema geographic and personal space in Iranian cinema the private erotic space of films from South Korea and Thailand and the persistence of the family unit in the urban spaces of Asian big cities in many Asian films and concepts such as Pan Asianism Orientalism Nationalism and Third Cinema The rise of Asian nations on the world stage has been coupled with a growing interest both inside and outside Asia of Asian culture of which film is increasingly an indispensable component this book provides a rich insightful overview of what exactly constitutes Asian Cinema

Asia in Europe, Europe in Asia Srilata Ravi, Mario Rutten, Beng-Lan Goh, 2004-06-30 The book presents a unique combination of the study of contemporary and historical practices between Asia and Europe and brings forth some of the latest thinking on the subject Recent debates have centered primarily on contemporary aspects of the Europe Asia partnership in terms of international relations and economic linkages The present volume complements this political and economic interest in Europe Asia relationship by focusing on the academic social and cultural connections between t

Film and Identity in Kazakhstan Rico Isaacs, 2018-02-07 Cinema and nationalism are two fundamentally modern phenomena but how have films shaped our understanding of the creation the imagining of Central

Asian nations Here Rico Isaacs uses cinema as an analytical lens to explore how the Kazakh national identity has been constructed and contested Drawing on an analysis of Kazakh films from the last century and featuring new interviews with directors and critics involved in the Central Asian film industry his book traces the construction of nationalism within Kazakh cinema from the country's inception as a Soviet Republic to a modern independent nation Isaacs identifies four narratives since the collapse of the Soviet Union a warrior like ethnic narrative rooted in the 18th Century struggles against the Mongolian Oirat tribes a civic inspired narrative cemented in the Stalinist deportations of the 1930s and 40s a religious narrative founded within the mystic and philosophical religion of Tengrism and the cult of the Sky God and a socio economic narrative which roots Kazakh nationhood and identity in contemporary social divisions the lived day to day experiences of ordinary citizens and the struggles they face with authority These last two tropes demonstrate how cinema has emerged as a site of dissent against the country's authoritarian regime under President Nazarbayev Film and Identity in Kazakhstan advances our understanding of Kazakhstan and nationalism by demonstrating the multiple and inessential character of each and illustrates the important role of cinema in contesting political power in the post Soviet space

Islam and Popular Culture in Indonesia and Malaysia Andrew N. Weintraub, 2011-04-20 Islam is a religion but there are also popular cultures of Islam that are mass mediated commercialized pleasure filled humorous and representative of large segments of society This book illuminates how Muslims and non Muslims in Indonesia and Malaysia make sense of their lives within an increasingly pervasive popular culture of Islamic images texts film songs and narratives

Asian Cinemas Dimitris Eleftheriotis, Gary Needham, 2006-03-31 The West's current fascination with Asian cinema must be viewed in the context of a complex and often problematic relationship between Western scholars students viewers and Asian films This book examines a number of detailed case studies such as the films of Ozu Bruce Lee Hong Kong and Turkish cinema Hindi melodramas Godzilla films Taiwanese directors and Fifth Generation Chinese cinema and uses them to investigate the limitations of Anglo U S theoretical models and critical paradigms By engaging readers with familiar areas of critical discourse such as postcolonial criticism national cinema genre authorship and stardom the book aims to introduce within such contexts the unfamiliar case studies that will be explored in depth and detail

Art, Culture and International Development John Clammer, 2014-11-13 Culture is not simply an explanation of last resort but is itself a rich multifaceted and contested concept and set of practices that needs to be expanded appreciated and applied in fresh ways if it is to be both valued in itself and to be of use in practical development This innovative book places culture specifically in the form of the arts back at the centre of debates in development studies by introducing new ways of conceptualizing art in relation to development The book shows how the arts and development are related in very practical ways as means to achieve development goals through visual dramatic filmic and craft inspired ways It advocates not so much culture and development but rather for the development of culture Without a cultural content to economic and social transformation the problems found in much development up rooting of cultures loss of art forms languages and modes of expression and performance may only accelerate Paying attention to the development of the arts as the content of development helps to amend this culturally destructive process Finally the book argues for the value of the arts in attaining sustainable cultures promoting poverty alleviation encouraging self empowerment stimulating creativity and the social imagination which in turn flow back into wider processes of social transformation Discussion questions at the end of each chapter make this book ideal to help foster further thinking and debate This book is an inspiring read for postgraduate students and researchers in the fields of development studies cultural studies and sociology of development
