Diary Of A Mad Poet Volume I:

Diary of a Mad Poet - Urban Poet, 2013-05 I have seen both sides of America the ghetto and Wall Street Unfortunately the past decade has not shown America in a good light I would like to apologize to the world also to the American middle class poor disabled and senior citizens for enduring an America that has been un American My writings reflect the bad and good in America and I hope it inspires America to do better My style of writing is not poetry but rather hip hop on paper For example I don't know what to do I can't tell angels from demons Demons from angels Don't know if these women wanna be loved or strangled Don't know if they wear chains or bangles Don't know if they're strippin or tango All these dudes flossin They say they got paper but when they walk they jangle Don't know if these politicians for real or got an angle Don't know if these preachers married to the church or sangle America she doesn't know the Lord's Prayer But she knows the Pledge of Allegiance and Star Spangle I would like to apologize in advance if some of my writings seem harsh and offensive However my writings reflect the external world as I experienced it My experiences have influenced and shaped my internal world the way I think and feel I pray that you have had many more positive experiences than I Welcome to my world the world of URBAN Poet I am in love with a country that sometimes doesn't love me I am disappointed in America and angry at government politicians religion and citizens who have chosen greed and selfishness over humanity Furthermore I am disappointed in the world and all the evil injustice prejudice poverty and corruption Today we live in the new age of Sodom and Gomorrah An environment where money is god sex is casual and love conditional These are the things that motivated and inspired me to write this book Writing as the URBAN Poet this is my first book My next two books will be titled Diary of a Mad Poet Volume 2 and From the Ghetto to Wall Street My parents lived in a very poor community in Grenada Mississippi In search of better living conditions they moved to Chicago I was born in Maplewood Projects on the West Side of Chicago I had a physically abusive father I ran away from home at the age of fifteen but still attended high school for food and shelter After high school my life went on a downward spiral for many years When I fell to the bottom I wondered Why was I poor and the rich man rich I came to the conclusion that it had to be more than race it had to be education Shortly afterward I enrolled in college and started receiving an abundance of loans scholarships and grants After tuition and rent were paid I invested in the stock market I continued on this course for seven years and received a bachelor of science in accounting and a master's in finance while managing to develop a large investment portfolio I've been working on Wall Street since I graduated Currently I live in Atlanta my income is well into the six figure range and I have traveled around the world Publisher's website <http://sbpra.com/URBANPoet>

Diary of a Mad Poet Robin Gabbert, 2020-10-15 After a fire destroyed her home Robin Gabbert realized she had lost all of her handwritten poetry which she had never bothered to computerize Gone all the pieces of work going back to her teenage years decades ago It was only in the last year before the fire that she started writing again Several decades of working as a lawyer and raising a family seemed to have intervened but now all of it was gone Her condo was reduced to ashes within an hour after she fled It has now been three years since the fire She is writing again and decided after a sufficient period of mourning and self pity that she would try to recreate to the extent possible those earlier works of poetry that she lost This book is the result of that endeavor The first part of the book The Fledging is comprised largely of the poems of her youth reconstituted or poems about her youth recently written The second part of the book Downs and Ups is poems written since the fire The fire and its fallout are a thread that runs through many of these poems like a particularly virulent strain of a nasty virus one that just won't seem to go away However it's not in her nature to lay down and die

The Poems of T. S. Eliot, Volume I T. S. Eliot, 2018-12-04 The first volume of the first paperback edition of The Poems of T S Eliot This two volume critical edition of T S Eliot's poems establishes a new text of the Collected Poems 1909-1962 rectifying accidental omissions and errors that have crept in during the century since Eliot's astonishing debut The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock In addition to the masterpieces The Poems of T S Eliot contains the poems of Eliot's youth which were rediscovered only decades later poems that circulated privately during his lifetime and love poems from his final years written for his wife Valerie Calling upon Eliot's critical writings as well as his drafts letters and other original materials Christopher Ricks and Jim McCue have provided a commentary that illuminates the imaginative life of each poem This first volume respects Eliot's decisions by opening with his Collected Poems 1909-1962 as he arranged and issued it shortly before his death This is followed by poems uncollected but either written for or suitable for publication and by a new reading text of the drafts of The Waste Land The second volume opens with the two books of verse of other kinds that Eliot issued Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats and Anabasis his translation of St John Perse's Anabase Each of these sections is accompanied by its own commentary Finally pertaining to the entire edition there is a comprehensive textual history that contains not only variants from all known drafts and the many printings but also extended passages amounting to hundreds of lines of compelling verse
