Did You Like That Fred Dibnah In His Own Words:

Did You Like That? Fred Dibnah, In His Own Words Don Haworth, 2012-08-31 When Fred Dibnah debuted on television in 1979 British audiences immediately embraced a new cultural icon a steeplejack from Bolton who fell in love with England's decaying industrial landscape and an exhaustive storyteller whose charm and wit was matched only by his down to earth manner The Producer of that first film Don Haworth would go on to make nineteen films about this unlikely celebrity and true British eccentric Did You Like That collects the best stories from these films colourful tales told by Fred himself recounting key moments in his life his experiences as a steeplejack his fascination with machinery his work as an engineer craftsman artist inventor and steam enthusiast and his forthright views on life in general Told with true Northern grit Did You Like That is the story of a man who never shied away from a hair raising challenge and the closest thing to Fred's autobiography we're likely to get In paperback for the first time this is Fred's story in his own words

The Magic Box Rob Young, 2021-08-03 A LOUDER THAN WAR BOOK OF THE YEAR A riveting journey into the psyche of Britain through its golden age of television and film a cross genre feast of moving pictures from classics to occult hidden gems The Magic Box is the nation's visual self portrait in technicolour detail The definition of gripping Truly a trove of weird treasures BENJAMIN MYERS A lovingly researched history of British TV that recalls the brilliant the bizarre and the unworldly GUARDIAN A reclamation not just of a visual golden age but of Britain as a darkly magical place THE SPECTATOR A feat of argument description and affection FINANCIAL TIMES Young unearths the ghosts of TV past and Britain's dark psyche HERALD Highly entertaining A fabulous treasure trove SCOTSMAN Young is a phenomenal scholar OBSERVER Impassioned THE CRITIC Growing up in the 1970s Rob Young's main storyteller was the wooden box with the glass window in the corner of the family living room otherwise known as the TV set Before the age of DVDs and Blu ray discs YouTube and commercial streaming services watching television was a vastly different experience You switched on you sat back and you watched There was no pause or fast forward button The cross genre feast of moving pictures produced in Britain between the late 1950s and late 1980s from Quatermass and Tom Jones to The Wicker Man and Brideshead Revisited from A Canterbury Tale and The Go Between to Bagpuss and Children of the Stones and from John Betjeman's travelogues to ghost stories at Christmas contributed to a national conversation and collective memory British made sci fi folk horror period drama and televisual grand tours played out tensions between the past and the present dramatised the fractures and injustices in society and acted as a portal for magical and ghostly visions In The Magic Box Rob Young takes us on a fascinating journey into this influential golden age of screen and discovers what it reveals about the nature and character of Britain its uncategorisable people and buried histories and how its presence can still be felt on screen in the twenty first century A forensic dissection this tightly packed treatise takes pains to illustrate how what we view affects how we view ourselves TOTAL FILM

Fred Dibnah's Buildings of Britain Fred Dibnah, David Hall, 2008 For a lot of people one of their first questions when they visit a great historic building is How the heck did they build that all that time ago How did they manage to lift all that stone and wood up to such a great height In Fred Dibnah s Buildings of Britain we get Fred Dibnah s own distinctive answer to this question as he takes us to some of the country s most famous and historic monuments castles cathedrals abbeys great houses and engineering marvels One of Fred s great passions was architecture engineering and the craft skills of builders carpenters stonemasons and structural engineers His interest was not in architectural theory but in the practicalities of how things were built and with the help of his beautifully executed drawings he was very good at giving simple vivid explanations of how things like great medieval castles and abbeys were built at a time when technology was limited and there were no power tools no concrete no steel no engines and no heavy machinery From Peterborough Cathedral to St Paul s and from the Humber Bridge to the Blackpool Tower the book will take us on a tour of Britain s great historic buildings with a very unique and charismatic guide Fred Dibnah The Listener ,1982-07 History Today ,2000 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 The Journal for Weavers, Spinners & Dyers ,2004 The British National Film Catalogue ,1983 FX ,2005 Art Galleries & Museums of Britain Ken Plant,1999 A guide to many of the museums and art galleries in England Scotland and Wales Includes details of opening times exhibitions displays and directions of how to find the museum
