The Future of Executive Development Mihnea C. Moldoveanu, Das Narayandas,2021-11-30 Executive development programs have entered a period of rapid transformation driven by digital disruption and a widening gap between the skills that participants and their organizations demand and those provided by their executive programs This work delves into the objective functions of the executive development space analyzes the demand characteristics of the learners and the organizations that pay for the programs and the ways in which business schools and other providers deliver or not on the promises they make regarding skill development and the continued value of learning to the organization They show how a trio of disruptive forces disintermediation disaggregation and decoupling which have figured prominently in industries disrupted by digitalization are reshaping the structure of demand for executive development The authors look at the future of executive development in the era of self refining algorithms aka machine learning and wearable sensors and computers and offer a compass for making the right choice for CEOs and CLOs who are guiding executive program design Ultimately they offer a guide for to optimize the learning production function for both skill acquisition and skill transfer the two charges that the new skills economy has laid out for any educational enterprise

AI and Ed George A. Goens, 2021-11-12 The United States has undergone several major transformations economically politically and socially Today the impact of artificial intelligence will bring another transformation affecting citizens private lives as well as employment communication politics and almost every other aspect of life The question artificial intelligence raises is what kind of education will students need in confronting the obvious and projected impact of technology Transformations affect obvious aspects of life but also raise significant issues that challenge values ethics and standards The purpose of this book is to define the role of education and its goals content and approaches that will assist citizens in addressing the challenges the artificial intelligence movement brings to the life of citizens Positive aspects of the transformation include communication productivity and other issues However there are hazards and downsides to artificial intelligence that must be addressed through an educated society Education s role encompasses assisting individuals to address the positive and negative aspects of any creative intervention Thinking coupled with insight into principles ethics and the meaning of life are critical Education prepares individuals for changing times in order to protect their freedoms and democracy and find a life of purpose and meaning

Getting the Message George A. Goens, 2021-03-15 Society today is fragmented There are frequent examples of harsh and abrasive discourse in social employment personal and political settings Name calling conceit and vulgarity are frequently used in social media and other forms of social interaction and discussion Communication is a critical issue in today s society We live in a technological time with the means to easily contact people However the quality and effectiveness of communication is problematic real connections with others require understanding and insight into them and their thinking That is the purpose of true communication Individuals must understand the content and intent of communication The missing link in quality and effective communication is listening Everyone wants to be heard but they fail to realize that all parties must listen Listening is an essential skill and is more than simply hearing Communication is essential in all facets of life because it concerns not only the physical process of talking and listening but also emotional and psychological concerns and ethics The nature of the conversation brings expectations and either opens or closes doors to further communication The Writers Directory ,2013
