Carter, J. Manuel Casas, Nadya A. Fouad, Allen E. Ivey, Margaret Jensen, Teresa LaFromboise, Jeanne E. Manese, Joseph G. Ponterotto, Ena Vazquez-Nutall, 1998-02-12 Multicultural Counseling Competencies is a state of the art book integrating the literature and work on multicultural counseling competencies It draws out implications for individual professional and institutional development by identifying the characteristics related to culturally competent mental health care. As such, it has relevance for practitioners who will increasingly encounter client populations who differ from them in terms of race, culture, and ethnicity. It suggests how the mental health profession needs to alter its practices to fit the needs of the culturally different in our society and advocates changes in mental health policy, programs, and organization. In a very systematic manner, the text provides a working definition of multiculturalism from which counselors, therapists, and social workers can ground their awareness, knowledge, and skills. It presents a new concept called ethnocentric monoculturalism and traces how it has inundated our society and the mental health professions. Written by leaders in the field of multicultural counseling, Multicultural Counseling Competencies is a landmark volume in clinical and counseling psychology, educational psychology, gender studies, nursing, social work, psychology, health services, interpersonal violence, and ethnic studies. Multicultural Counseling by Jerry Trusty, 2002. Multicultural Counseling: Context, Theory, Practice, Competence. ACP: Theory of Multicultural Counselling and Therapy. Derald Wing Sue, Allen E. Ivey, Paul Pedersen, 2004-11-16. In this breakthrough book, three leaders in the field draw on their years of experience to formulate the first ever multicultural counseling theory. After the authors' presentation of their theory, experts in specific areas of the field present their views on the proposed theory and comment on how it applies to their particular areas of expertise. Preceding each contributed essay, the authors provide continuity to the text by conducting an assumption audit of the key points and ideas inherent in each respondent's chapter. They then integrate these assumptions in a final chapter addressing the future of multicultural theory development.
