Handbook of Postcolonial Archaeology Jane Lydon,Uzma Z Rizvi,2016-07-01 This essential handbook explores the relationship between the postcolonial critique and the field of archaeology a discipline that developed historically in conjunction with European colonialism and imperialism In aiding the movement to decolonize the profession the contributors to this volume themselves from six continents and many representing indigenous and minority communities and disadvantaged countries suggest strategies to strip archaeological theory and practice of its colonial heritage and create a discipline sensitive to its inherent inequalities Summary articles review the emergence of the discipline of archaeology in conjunction with colonialism critique the colonial legacy evident in continuing archaeological practice around the world identify current trends and chart future directions in postcolonial archaeological research Contributors provide a synthesis of research thought and practice on their topic The articles embrace multiple voices and case study approaches and have consciously aimed to recognize the utility of comparative work and interdisciplinary approaches to understanding the past This is a benchmark volume for the study of the contemporary politics practice and ethics of archaeology Sponsored by the World Archaeological Congress Routledge International Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies Gerard Delanty,2018-07-27 Cosmopolitanism is about the extension of the moral and political horizons of people societies organizations and institutions Over the past 25 years there has been considerable interest in cosmopolitan thought across the human social sciences The second edition of the Routledge International Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies is an enlarged revised and updated version of the first edition It consists of 50 chapters across a broader range of topics in the social and human sciences Eighteen entirely new chapters cover topics that have become increasingly prominent in cosmopolitan scholarship in recent years such as sexualities public space the Kantian legacy the commons internet generations care and heritage This Second Edition aims to showcase some of the most innovative and promising developments in recent writing in the human and social sciences on cosmopolitanism Both comprehensive and innovative in the topics covered the Routledge International Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies is divided into four sections Cosmopolitan theory and history with a focus on the classical and contemporary approaches The cultural dimensions of cosmopolitanism The politics of cosmopolitanism World varieties of cosmopolitanism There is a strong emphasis in interdisciplinarity with chapters covering contributions in philosophy history sociology anthropology media studies international relations The Handboook s clear and comprehensive style will appeal to a wide undergraduate and postgraduate audience across the social and human sciences

Rooted Cosmopolitanism, Heritage and the Question of Belonging Lennart Wouter Kruijer,Miguel John Versluys,Ian Lilley,2024-03-21 This book explores the analytical and practical value of the notion of rooted cosmopolitanism for the field of cultural heritage. Many concepts of present day heritage discourses such as World Heritage, local heritage practices or indigenous heritage tend to elide the complex interplay between the local and the global entanglements that are investigated as glocalisation in Globalisation Studies. However, no human group ever creates more than a part of its heritage by itself. This book explores an exciting new alternative in scholarly critical heritage discourse: the notion of rooted cosmopolitanism, a way of making manifestations of globalised phenomena comprehensible and relevant at local levels. It develops a critical perspective on heritage and heritage practices, bringing together a highly varied yet conceptually focused set of stimulating contributions by senior and emerging scholars working on the heritage of localities across the globe. A contextualising introduction is followed by three strongly theoretical and methodological chapters which complement the second part of the book: six concrete empirical chapters written in response to the more theoretical chapters. Two final reflective conclusions bring together these different levels of analysis. This book will appeal primarily to archaeologists, anthropologists, heritage professionals and museum curators who are ready to be confronted with innovative and exciting new approaches to the complexities of cultural heritage in a globalising world. Challenging Cosmopolitanism Joshua Gedacht, 2018-09-30. Contextualizes the refugee crisis through a historical study of Muslim mobility and violence. Cosmopolitanism has emerged as a key category in Islamic Studies, defining models of Muslim mobility, pluralism and tolerance that challenge popular perceptions of religious extremism. Such celebrations and valorisations of mobility and trans-regional consciousness, however, tend to conflate border crossing with opportunity and social diversity with ethical progress. At the same time, they generally disregard the ways in which such forms of cosmopolitanism have been entwined with structures of domination, economic control and violence. This volume addresses these issues in ways that help to contextualize contemporary issues such as the global refugee crisis in relation to longer histories of Muslim mobility and coercion. Featuring new historical and ethnographic research on China and Southeast Asia, this book explores how power and violence have shaped the experiences of Sufis and state builders as well as refugees and rebels, contributing to a more nuanced understanding of Islamic cosmopolitanism.

Museums and Restitution Louise Tythacott,Kostas

Arvanitis,2016-04-22 This book examines contemporary approaches to restitution from the perspective of museums It focuses on the ways in which these institutions have been addressing the subject at a regional national and international level In particular it explores contemporary practices and recent claims and investigates to what extent the question of restitution as an issue of ownership is still at large or whether museums have found additional ways to conceptualise and practice restitution by thinking beyond the issue of ownership The challenges benefits and drawbacks of recent and current museum practice are explored At the same time the book discusses how these museum practices are received and informed by source communities institutional and governmental agendas and visitors expectations in order to explore issues of authority collaboration and shared or conflicting values between the different communities involved in the process This important book will contribute to the developing body of literature that academics professionals policy makers and students can refer to in order to understand how restitution has been negotiated materialised practiced and evaluated within museums
