Mobility and Migration in Film and Moving Image Art Nilgun Bayraktar, 2015-12-07 Mobility and Migration in Film and Moving Image Art explores cinematic and artistic representations of migration and mobility in Europe from the 1990s to today Drawing on theories of migrant and diasporic cinema moving image art and mobility studies Bayraktar provides historically situated close readings of films videos and cinematic installations that concern migratory networks and infrastructures across Europe the Middle East and Africa Probing the notion of Europe as a coherent entity and a borderless space this interdisciplinary study investigates the ways in which European ideals of mobility and fluidity are deeply enmeshed with forced migration illegalization and xenophobia With a specific focus on distinct forms of mobility such as labor migration postcolonial migration tourism and refugee mobilities Bayraktar studies the new counter hegemonic imaginations invoked by the work of filmmakers such as Ay e Polat Fatih Akin Michael Haneke and Tony Gatlif as well as video essays and installations of artists such as Kutlu Ataman Ursula Biemann Ergin avu o lu Maria Iorio and Rapha l Cuomo Challenging aesthetic as well as national cultural and political boundaries the works central to this book envision Europe as a diverse inclusive and unfixed continent that is reimagined from many elsewheres well beyond its borders

Hollywood Action Films and Spatial Theory Nick Jones, 2015-03-02 This book applies the discourse of the so called spatial turn to popular contemporary cinema in particular the action sequences of twenty first century Hollywood productions Tackling a variety of spatial imaginations contemporary iconic architecture globalisation and non places phenomenological knowledge of place consumerist spaces of commodity purchase cyberspace the diverse case studies not only detail the range of ways in which action sequences represent the challenge of surviving and acting in contemporary space but also reveal the consistent qualities of spatial appropriation and spatial manipulation that define the form Jones argues that action sequences dramatise the restrictions and possibilities of space offering examples of radical spatial praxis through their depictions of spatial engagement struggle and eventual transcendence

American Documentary Filmmaking in the Digital Age Lucia Ricciardelli, 2014-11-20 American Documentary Filmmaking in the Digital Age examines the recent challenges to the conventions of realist documentary through the lens of war documentary films by Ken Burns Michael Moore and Errol Morris During the twentieth century the invention of new technologies of audiovisual representation such as cinema television video and digital media have transformed the modes of historical narration and with it forced historians to assess the impact of new visual technologies on the construction of history This book investigates the manner in which this contemporary Western crisis in historical narrative is produced by a larger epistemological shift in visual culture Ricciardelli uses the theme of war as depicted in these directors films to focus her study and look at the model s of national identity that Burns Morris and Moore shape through their depictions of US military actions She examines how postcolonial critiques of historicism and the advent of digitization have affected the narrative structure of documentary film and the shaping of historical consciousness through cinematic representation

Postfeminism and Paternity in Contemporary US Film Hannah Hamad, 2013-10-15 This book interrogates representations of fatherhood across the spectrum of popular U S film of the early twenty first century It situates them in relation to postfeminist discourse identifying and discussing dominant paradigms and tropes that emerge from the tendency of popular cinema to configure ideal masculinity in paternal terms It analyses postfeminist fatherhood across a range of genres including historical epics war films westerns bromantic comedies male melodramas action films family comedies and others It also explores recurring themes and intersections such as the rejuvenation of aging masculinities through fatherhood the paternalized recuperation of immature adult masculinities the relationship between fatherhood in film and 9 11 culture post racial discourse in representations of fatherhood and historically located formations of fatherhood It is the first book length study to explore the relationship between fatherhood and postfeminism in popular cinema

Cinema as Weather Kristi McKim, 2013-03-05 How do cinematic portrayals of the weather reflect and affect our experience of the world While weatherly predictability and surprise can impact our daily experience the history of cinema attests to the stylistic and narrative significance of snow rain wind sunshine clouds and skies Through analysis of films ranging from The Wizard of Oz to The Umbrellas of Cherbourg from Citizen Kane to In the Mood for Love Kristi McKim calls our attention to the ways that we read our atmospheres both within and beyond the movies Building upon meteorological definitions of weather's dynamism and volatility this book shows how film weather can reveal character interiority accelerate plot development inspire stylistic innovation comprise a momentary attraction convey the passage of time and idealize the world at its greatest meaning making capacity unlike our weather film weather always happens on time whether for tumultuous romantic violent suspenseful or melodramatic ends Akin to cinema's structuring of ephemera cinematic weather suggests aesthetic control over what is fleeting contingent wildly environmental and beyond human capacity to tame This first book length study of such a meteorological and cinematic affinity casts film weather as a means of artfully and mechanically conquering contingency through contingency of taming weather through a medium itself ephemeral and enduring Using film theory history formalist phenomenological analysis and eco criticism this book casts cinema as weather insofar as our skies and screens become readable through our interpretation of changing phenomena

Horror Film and Affect Xavier Aldana Reyes, 2016-02-12 This book brings together various theoretical approaches to Horror that have received consistent academic attention since the 1990s abjection disgust cognition phenomenology pain studies to make a significant contribution to the study of fictional moving images of mutilation and the ways in which human bodies are affected by those on the screen on three levels representationally emotionally and somatically Aldana Reyes reads Horror viewership as eminently carnal and seeks to articulate the need for an alternative model that understands the experience of feeling under corporeal threat as the genre's main descriptor Using recent post millennial examples throughout the book also offers case studies of key films such as Hostel REC Martyrs or Ginger Snaps and considers contemporary Horror strands such as found footage or 3D Horror

The Aesthetics of Antifascist Film Jennifer Lynde Barker, 2013 Through a series of detailed film case histories ranging from The Great Dictator to Hiroshima mon amour to The Lives of Others The Aesthetics of Antifascist Film Radical Projection explores the genesis and recurrence of antifascist aesthetics as it manifests in the WWII Cold War and Post War historical periods Emerging during a critical moment in film history 1930s 1940s Hollywood cinematic antifascism was representative of the international nature of antifascist alliances with the amalgam of film styles generated in migr Hollywood during the WWII period reflecting a dialogue between an urgent political commitment to antifascism and an equally intense commitment to aesthetic complexity Opposed to a fascist aesthetics based on homogeneity purity and spectacle these antifascist films project a radical beauty of distortion heterogeneity fragmentation and loss By juxtaposing documentation and the modernist techniques of surrealism and expressionism the filmmakers were able to manifest a non totalizing work of art that still had political impact Drawing on insights from film and cultural studies aesthetic and ethical philosophy and socio political theory this book argues that the artistic struggles with political commitment and modernist strategies of representation during the 1930s and 40s resulted in a distinctive radical aesthetic form that represents an alternate strand of post modernism

Cinema and Language Loss Tijana Mamula, 2013 Cinema and Language Loss provides the first sustained exploration of the relationship between linguistic displacement and visuality in the filmic realm examining in depth both its formal expressions and theoretical implications Combining insights from psychoanalysis philosophy and film theory the author argues that the move from one linguistic environment to another profoundly destabilizes the subject's relation to both language and reality resulting in the search for a substitute for language in vision itself a reversal as it were of speaking into seeing The dynamics of this shift are particularly evident in the works of many displaced filmmakers which often manifest a conflicted interaction between language and vision and through this question the signifying potential and the perceptual ambiguities of cinema itself In tracing the encounter between cinema and language loss across a wide range of films from Billy Wilder's Sunset Boulevard to Chantal Akerman's News from Home to Michael Haneke's Caché Mamula reevaluates the role of displacement in postwar Western film and makes an original contribution to film theory and philosophy based on a reconsideration of the place of language in our experience and understanding of cinema
