The Political Economy of Patriarchy in the Global South Ece Kocabiçak, 2022-07-11 Recent decades have witnessed both a renewed energy in feminist activism and widespread attacks taking back hard won rights Despite powerful feminist movements the Covid 19 pandemic has significantly undermined the progress women have struggled for decades to achieve how can this be What explains this paradox of a strong feminist movement coexisting with stubborn patriarchal arrangements How can we stop the next global catastrophe initiating a similar backlash This book suggests that the limitations of social theory prevent feminist strategies from initiating transformative changes and achieving permanent gains It investigates the impact of theoretical shortcomings upon feminist strategies by engaging with two clusters of work ungendered accounts of capitalist development and theories on gendered oppression and inequality Decentering feminist theorising grounded in histories and developments of the global North the book provides an original theory of the patriarchal system by analysing changes within its forms and degrees as well as investigating the relationship between the gender class and race ethnicity based inequalities Turkey offers a case that challenges assumptions and calls for rethinking major feminist categories and theories thereby shedding light on the dynamics of social change in the global South The timely intervention of this book is therefore crucial for feminist strategies going forward The book emerges at the intersections between Gender International Development Political Economy and Sociology and its main readership will be found in but not limited to these disciplinary fields The material covered in this book will be of great interest to students and researchers in these areas as well as policy makers and feminist activists Since publication it has been nominated for the prestigious 2023 British Sociological Association's Philip Adams Memorial Prize The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license

Inclusive Urban Development in the Global South Andrea Rigon, Vanesa Castán Broto, 2021-05-16 Inclusive Urban Development in the Global South emphasizes the importance of the neighbourhood in urban development planning with case studies aimed at transforming current intervention practices towards more inclusive and just means of engagement with individuals and communities The chapters explore how diversity of gender class race and ethnicity citizenship status age ability and sexuality is taken or not taken into account and approached in the planning and implementation of development policy and interventions in poor urban areas The book employs a practical perspective on the deployment of theoretical critiques of intersectionality and diversity in development practice through case studies examining issues such as water and sanitation planning in Dhaka indigenous rights to the city in Bolivia post colonial planning in Hong Kong land reform in Zimbabwe and many more The book focuses on radical alternatives with the potential to foster urban transformations for planning and development communities working around the world

Urban transformations and public health in the emergent city

Michael Keith, Andreza Aruska de Souza Santos, 2020-08-18 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY-NC-ND open access license Urban transformations and public health in the emergent city examines how urban health and wellbeing are shaped by migration mobility racism sanitation and gender Adopting a global focus that spans Africa Asia Europe and Latin America the essays in this volume bring together a wide selection of voices that explore the interface between social medical and natural sciences This interdisciplinary approach moving beyond traditional approaches to urban research offers a unique perspective on today's cities and the challenges they face Edited by Michael Keith and Andreza Aruska de Souza Santos this volume also features contributions from leading thinkers on cities in Brazil China South Africa and the United Kingdom This geographic diversity is matched by the breadth of their different fields from mental health and gendered violence to sanitation and food systems Together they present a complex yet connected vision of a new biopolitics in today's metropolis one that requires an innovative approach to urban scholarship regardless of geography or discipline This volume featuring chapters from a number of renowned authors including former Deputy Mayor of Rio de Janeiro Luiz Eduardo Soares is an important resource for anyone seeking to better understand the dynamics of urban change With its focus on the everyday realities of urban living from health services to public transportation it contains valuable lessons for academics policy makers and practitioners alike Women and Finance in Africa Tinuade Adekunbi

Ojo,2024-05-09 This volume presents a collection of cases that examine the status of financial inclusion for women across a variety of states in the African continent The book uses a qualitative research method and presents both primary to secondary data to narrate the impact of gender responsive budgeting on women s empowerment and gender equality in these communities The chapters present the analysis of the effectiveness of African state approaches and share lessons that different African economies whether currently booming or struggling can enhance or implement toward the financial inclusion and gender budgeting response at all structural levels The main objectives of this volume are to understand different processes for financial inclusion to gender issues at a national level and to help encourage reflection on what lessons could be learned between states and what factors cause divergence in multilateral settings so that they can be understood and addressed Handbook on Energy Justice Stefan Bouzarovski,Sara Fuller,Tony G. Reames,2023-05-09

Offering a unique and critical perspective on energy justice this Handbook delves into an emerging field of inquiry encapsulating multiple strands of scholarship on energy systems Covering key topics including generation transmission distribution and demand it explores fundamental questions surrounding policy climate change security and social movements

Gender and Sexuality in Senegalese Societies Babacar M'Baye,Besi Brillian Muhonja,2019-07-10 Drawing from the diverse fields of postcolonial studies literary studies history anthropology sociology political science environmental studies and development studies among others Gender and Sexuality in Senegalese Societies demonstrates the urgency and necessity of new research in gender and queer studies in and on Senegalese societies By focusing on subjects that have thus far been largely neglected in national and scholarly debates the chapters are subversive complex and inclusive centering within Senegalese studies themes and elements of alternative nonbinary variant and nonheteronormative gender identities sexualities and voices Contributors demonstrate that nationalist and anticolonial discourses propelled by deep and lingering socioeconomic inequalities have led in postcolonial Senegal to vitriolic scapegoating of individuals and communities with variant sexual and gender identities The chapters in this volume look inward to the voices and experiences of the Senegalese people to challenge nationalist representations of advocacy for the liberation of gender and sexual minorities in Senegal as a function of a Western neocolonialist agenda Women, Urbanization and Sustainability Anita Lacey,2017-03-28

This work considers the city as a gendered space and examines women s experiences and engagement in both urbanization and sustainability Such a focus offers distinctive insights into the question of what it means for a city to be sustainable asking further how sustainability needs to work with gender and the gendered lives of cities inhabitants Vitally it considers women s

lives in cities and their work to forge more sustainable cities through a wide variety of means including governmental non governmental and local grassroots and individual efforts towards sustainable urban life The volume is transnational offering case studies from a wide range of city sites and sustainability efforts It explores crucial questions such as the gendered nature and women s experiences of current urbanization the gendered nature of urban sustainability thinking and programmes and local alternatives and resistances to dominant modes of addressing urbanization challenges
