Cinderella's Secrets George Helou,2015-11-01 The depths of Ella s most intimate thoughts are revealed to show how she managed to harness her inner wisdom and move beyond being enslaved by her past into a new life filled with love and abundance The classic story of Cinderella urges a child to be kind with no exceptions Yet being constantly kind to those who feel the need to take advantage can cause us to become vulnerable to being exploited bullied and left disillusioned with low self esteem To also suggest that life miraculously works in our favour by just being kind regardless of our personal need for respect and dignity can leave us powerless as we wait to be saved Ella s world hit rock bottom as the stepmother and stepsisters had gone to the Royal Ball without her Ella was left depressed staring into the fireplace Falling into a deep trance by the fire Ella s realisations began to flood her mind with how some of her assumptions about how to treat herself and others contributed to her struggle This was the beginning of a profound metamorphosis that would see a meek and timid girl move into her wisdom and power as a young woman Ella made it to the Ball Not because of a fairy godmother waving a wand but because Ella discovered the magic that comes from within This is a remarkable journey of a girl who learned the art of reinventing herself to reclaim her self worth and become empowered to make her precious dreams come true It is a journey we all have the opportunity of taking as we grow in life and discover the assumptions we have made in our past that hold us back It is a celebration wrapped around a beautiful fairytale of old of how we learn to rediscover ourselves and move into who we truly are and to be where we truly belong
