Cinema Remixed And Reloaded Black Women And The Moving Image Since 197:

Black City Cinema Paula Massood,2011-01-19 In Black City Cinema Paula Massood shows how popular films reflected the massive social changes that resulted from the Great Migration of African Americans from the rural South to cities in the North West and Mid West during the first three decades of the twentieth century By the onset of the Depression the Black population had become primarily urban transforming individual lives as well as urban experience and culture Massood probes into the relationship of place and time showing how urban settings became an intrinsic element of African American film as Black people became more firmly rooted in urban spaces and more visible as historical and political subjects Illuminating the intersections of film history politics and urban discourse she considers the chief genres of African American and Hollywood narrative film the black cast musicals of the 1920s and the race films of the early sound era to blaxploitation and hood films as well as the work of Spike Lee toward the end of the century As it examines such a wide range of films over much of the twentieth century this book offers a unique map of Black representations in film Migrating to the Movies Jacqueline Najuma Stewart,2005-03-28 The rise of cinema as the predominant American entertainment around the turn of the last century coincided with the migration of hundreds of thousands of African Americans from the South to the urban land of hope in the North This richly illustrated book discussing many early films and illuminating black urban life in this period is the first detailed look at the numerous early relationships between African Americans and cinema It investigates African American migrations onto the screen into the audience and behind the camera showing that African American urban populations and cinema shaped each other in powerful ways Focusing on Black film culture in Chicago during the silent era Migrating to the Movies begins with the earliest cinematic representations of African Americans and concludes with the silent films of Oscar Micheaux and other early race films made for Black audiences discussing some of the extraordinary ways in which African Americans staked their claim in cinema s development as an art and a cultural institution L.A. Rebellion Allyson Field,2015-11-13 L A Rebellion Creating a New Black Cinema is the first book dedicated to the films and filmmakers of the L A Rebellion a group of African Caribbean and African American independent film and video artists that formed at the University of California Los Angeles in the 1970s and 1980s The group including Charles Burnett Julie Dash Haile Gerima Billy Woodberry Jamaa Fanaka and Zeinabu irene Davis shared a desire to create alternatives to the dominant modes of narrative style and practice in American cinema works that reflected the full complexity of Black experiences This landmark collection of essays and oral histories examines the creative output of the L A Rebellion contextualizing the group s film practices and offering sustained analyses of the wide range of works with particular attention to newly discovered films and lesser known filmmakers Based on extensive archival work and preservation this collection includes a complete filmography of the movement over 100 illustrations most of which are previously unpublished and a bibliography of primary and secondary materials This is an indispensable sourcebook for scholars and enthusiasts establishing the key role played by the L A Rebellion within the histories of cinema Black visual culture and postwar art in Los Angeles

Black Women Directors Christina N. Baker, 2022-03-18 Black women have long recognized the power of film for storytelling For far too long however the cultural and historical narratives about film have not accounted for the contributions of Black women directors This book remedies this omission by highlighting the trajectory of the culturally significant work of Black women directors in the United States from the under examined pioneers of the silent era to the documentarians who sought to highlight the voices and struggles of Black women and the contemporary Black women directors in Hollywood Applying a Black feminist perspective this book examines the ways that Black women filmmakers have made a way for themselves and their work by resisting the dominant cultural expectations for Black women and for the medium of film as a whole

Black Women Film and Video Artists Jacqueline Bobo, 1998 Black women film and video makers have been producing shorts documentaries and films since the early part of this century Unfortunately not only has their work been overlooked by distributors but critical reviews have been few and far between Conceived to redress that omission Black Women Film and Video Artists is the first comprehensive history and analysis of this genre Gathered here are noted scholars and critics as well as the film video makers themselves who offer insight into the work of underexplored artists The discussions range from pioneering to contemporary film makers and include artists such as Madeline Anderson Monica Freeman Jacqueline Shearer Kathleen Collins Julie Dash Camille Billops Zeinabu irene Davis and Michelle Parkerson among others Contributors include Jacqueline Bobo Carmen Coustaut Gloria J Gibson C A Griffith Monique Guillory Carol Munday Lawrence O Funmilayo Makarah Ntongela Maselila Jacqueline Shearer P Jane Splawn

The Witch's Flight Kara Keeling, 2007-11-05 Through an analysis of filmic representations of Black femininity and the Black Femme in particular this book highlights the ways the cinematic structures both racist and sexist portrayals and their potential undoing

Framing Blackness Ed Guerrero, 1993-11-19 From D W Griffith's The Birth of a Nation to Spike Lee's Malcolm X Ed Guerrero argues the commercial film industry reflects white domination of American society Written with the energy and conviction generated by the new black film wave Framing Blackness traces an ongoing epic African Americans protesting screen images of blacks as criminals servants comics athletes and sidekicks These images persist despite blacks irrepressible demands for emancipated images and a role in the industry Although starkly racist portrayals of blacks in early films have gradually been replaced by more appealing characterizations the legacy of the plantation genre lives on in Blaxploitation films the fantastic racialized imagery in science fiction and horror films and the resubordination of blacks in Reagan era films Probing the contradictions of such images Guerrero recalls the controversies surrounding role choices by stars like Sidney Poitier Eddie Murphy Whoopie Goldberg and Richard Pryor Throughout his study Guerrero is attentive to the ways African Americans resist Hollywood's one dimensional images and superficial selling of black culture as the latest fad Organizing political demonstrations and boycotts writing and creating their own film images are among the forms of active resistance documented The final chapter awakens readers to the artistic and commercial breakthrough of black independent filmmakers who are using movies to channel their rage at social injustice Guerrero points out their diverse approaches to depicting African American life and hails innovative tactics for financing their work Framing Blackness is the most up to date critical study of how African Americans are acquiring power once the province of Hollywood alone the power of framing blackness In the series Culture and the Moving Image edited by Robert Sklar African American Female Leadership in Major Motion Pictures Tracy L.F.

Worley,2024-02-09 This book explores the factors contributing to the under representation of African American female directors in mainstream cinema leadership It also unmasks the potential strategies African American female film directors might pursue to reduce this inequity Author Tracy L F Worley draws on research around ethics to conclude that there are specific consequences of the male gaze on women in cinema leadership especially African American female directors of box office cinema Combining extensive analysis of ethics and ethical stance relative to the motion picture industry with perspectives from working African American female directors the text discusses the ethical considerations and historical inequities including the male gaze and uses those findings to define how the inequities can be opportunities The efficacy model for cinematic leadership is presented as a mechanism for viewing obstacles through the lenses of gender ethnicity and culture so they become drivers for African American women to achieve success Ideal for students of directing and filmmaking as well as aspiring professional filmmakers wishing to gain a better understanding of the industry as it stands today

Mammies No More Lisa M. Anderson,1997-08-28 Explores the ways in which mainstream American plays and films have reflected and helped to reinforce stereotypes of black women Black Cinema & Visual Culture Arnel Great,Ed Guerrero,2023-03-30 This culturally and politically timely collection examines new Black films and moving images that have once again excited and possibly shifted the global media landscape At a moment some scholars have described as post post racial Black Cinema Visual Culture provides new urgent definitions and theories for Black cinema and furthers the development of its critical discourses Gathering some of the leading scholars and critics in the field this book enriches and advances the study of Black film and media and its social and political implications at a breakthrough period of expansion in the 21st century This anthology tackles a wide range of topics from social justice new media and Afrofuturism to race gender sexuality mass incarceration cultural memory and Afrosurrealism exploring the current climate of Black cinematic art that has proven wildly popular with domestic and global audiences including hit films like Get Out and Marvel s Black Panther Together these essays deepen understandings of Black visual culture its creative image makers the political economy of Hollywood and the cultural politics at the intersection of modern cinema streaming platforms and digital technologies Black Cinema Visual Culture will serve as an important learning tool for university courses spanning topics in film studies American film and television cultural studies American studies African Diaspora studies media activism social analysis and African American studies This volume will also provide a benchmark in popular and intellectual circles for anyone interested in popular culture Black American cinema media issues of race in Hollywood or Black culture and the conditions that shape both its art and politics

Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Cinema Remixed And Reloaded Black Women And The Moving Image Since 197 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
