Circular Breathing Meditations From A Musical Life:

Circular Breathing Ann McCutchan, 2011-09-12 In this collection of personal essays clarinetist Ann McCutchan uses the metaphor of circular breathing to animate her understanding of her own life as a woman musician and writer Circular breathing is a technique for wind instrument playing in which fresh air is drawn in through the nose at the same time that stored air in the lungs is released by mouth through the instrument The process allows the player to produce a continuous line of music without breaking the curve of a melody to inhale The questions McCutchan grapples with have universal implications For example how does one come to be called to a life's work For McCutchan who grew up in central Florida in the 1960s the call grew out of twin desires to exercise a physical voice and to develop an interior one Bringing both to fruition meant abandoning roles expected of young women in that time and place and learning to live ever after with the conflicting claims of art and life Questions of familial loss lie at the heart of this collection as well With a sure delicate hand McCutchan examines the impact of her parents untimely deaths her inability to bear children and the foundering of her two marriages Art may not deliver one from sorrow she discovers but it may console deeply Finally there are the questions that arise when one can no longer fulfill the physical demands of an art Can a musician trade in her instrument and a world that defined her for decades for something else Here McCutchan charts her journey from the stage to the page exploring the ways both worlds feed each other ANN McCUTCHAN is the author of Marcel Moyse Voice of the Flute and The Muse That Sings Composers Speak About the Creative Process Her work has appeared in numerous literary journals and in The Best American Spiritual Writing She teaches creative writing at the University of North Texas You Haven't Asked About My Wedding Or What I Wore Jana Harris, 2014-10-15 During more than thirty years of reading reminiscences diaries and letters of forgotten North American pioneer women poet Jana Harris noticed one narrative recurring time and again the most powerful memory these women had was often either their courtship and wedding or the courtship and wedding of a family member While these young women who most likely hauled water in a wooden bucket from creek to house and then wore her knees raw scrubbing splintery floors if she was lucky enough to live in a home that had a floor dreamed of a fine wedding it was sometimes with a man they hardly knew Harris captures the hope anxiety anger and despair of these women through a variety of voices and poetic strategies Based on interviews of 19th century frontier women conducted during the 1920 s and 30 s the voices and images of these powerful women speak Nowhere on these parchment leaves do I find myself my likeness my name not a whisper Cynthia not one breath of me Sculpted out of years of research and accompanied by archival photographs these poems imagine the memoirs of forgotten frontier women and children The Life She Wished to Live Ann McCutchan, 2021-05-11 A comprehensive and engaging biography of Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings Pulitzer Prize winning author of the beloved classic The Yearling Washington DC born and Wisconsin educated Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings was an unlikely author of a coming of age novel about a poor central Florida child and his pet fawn much less one that has become synonymous with Florida literature writ large Rawlings was a tough ambitious and independent woman who refused the conventions of her early twentieth century upbringing Determined to forge a literary career beyond those limitations she found her voice in the remote hardscrabble life of Cross Creek Florida There Rawlings purchased a commercial orange grove and discovered a fascinating world out of which to write and a dialect of the poor swampland community that the literary world had yet to hear She employed her sensitive eye sharp ear for dialogue and philosophical spirit to bring to life this unknown corner of America in vivid tender detail a feat that earned her the Pulitzer Prize in 1938 Her accomplishments came at a price a failed first marriage financial instability a contentious libel suit alcoholism and physical and emotional upheaval With intimate access to Rawlings s correspondence and revealing early writings Ann McCutchan uncovers a larger than life woman who writes passionately and with verve whose emotions change on a dime and who drinks to excess smokes swears and even occasionally joins in on an alligator hunt The Life She Wished to Live paints a lively portrait of Rawlings her contemporaries including her legendary editor Maxwell Perkins and friends Zora Neale Hurston Ernest Hemingway and F Scott Fitzgerald and the Florida landscape and people that inspired her

Cameron, Tenzin Namdul, 2020-01-28 All of us want to be happy and avoid suffering So why are many of us anxious angry depressed We suffer from pain hypertension inflammation indigestion insomnia and addictions Yet too often we make choices that sabotage us rather than reverse what's wrong Tibetan medicine Tibet's ancient comprehensive science of healing offers effective tools for transforming suffering into health and happiness Tibetan medicine teaches that the purpose of life is to be happy and that after our basic needs are met happiness results primarily from our own thinking When challenges arise we can wallow in negativity and get sick or even sicker in mind and body Or we can decide to create health and happiness Making positive choices won't solve every problem but will produce better results than poor or thoughtless decisions do This unique book explains in everyday English how to use Tibetan medicine for self care and as a complement to modern medicine Tibetan medicine sheds light on the intricate relationship between mind and body Each of us is born with a unique combination of energies called our constitution Understanding our constitution empowers us to make conscious informed decisions about our thoughts diet and behavior to keep our energies in balance We learn to reduce stress create health prepare for death and be happy Fabric of Life - Textile Arts in Bhutan Karin Altmann, 2015-11-27 This extensive work dedicated to the unique textile art of Bhutan is an impressive illustration of how closely art spirituality and life are interwoven in the last of the Buddhist kingdoms in the Himalayas It gives new insight into Bhutanese cosmology worldview culture and society which is associated with a variety of historical philosophical religious social and artistic perspectives The remote mountain location low key foreign policy and basic principles of Buddhism has made it possible for Bhutan the last of the Buddhist kingdoms in the Himalayas to preserve a remarkable form of textile art that is interwoven with all aspects of life Karin Altmann shows us Bhutan textiles in their diversity they are clothes and everyday objects currency and commodity mark important events as gifts during life and are testament to the social status of a person But they are also an integral aspect of religious festivals dances and rituals that provide insight into the mystical and religious beliefs of the Bhutanese people and reflect the concept of gender in Bhutanese society The book also tells the story of a country that is searching for a sensitive balance between tradition and progress in a globalized world
