Caribbean Families Caribbean Families:

Family in the Caribbean Christine Barrow, 1999 A review of the literature on the family household and conjugal unions in the Caribbean It is constructed around themes prominent in family studies definitions of the family plural and Creole society social structure gender roles and relationships methodology history and social change Women and the Family Caroline Sweetman, 1996 Looking at factors as diverse as the persuasiveness of patriarchy changing family forms female infanticide and land reform policies this collection of articles considers the family from a gender perspective and how the socially prescribed roles of men and women within the family can constrain women's opportunities Contributors include Suad Joseph and Ranjani Krishnamurthy Caribbean Families Jaipaul L. Roopnarine, Janet Brown, 1997-06-12 Little is known about the development and function of families in major Caribbean communities an area composed of diverse ethnic and political groups the majority of whom live on the edge of poverty This edited book provides an interdisciplinary examination of Caribbean families each chapter detailing studies dealing with family structures and intellectual social and clinical problems and their treatment The articles are 1 Overview of Issues in Childhood Socialization in the Caribbean Hyacinth Evans and Rose Davies 2 Class Race and Gender Issues in Child Rearing in the Caribbean Elsa A Leo Rhynie 3 Family Socialization in an East Indian Village in Guyana A Focus on Fathers Jaipaul L Roopnarine and Others 4 Caribbean Fatherhood Under researched Misunderstood Janet Brown Arthur Newland Patricia Anderson and Barry Chevannes 5 The Idea of Childhood and Age of Sexual Maturity among Indians in Trinidad A Sociohistorical Scrutiny Patricia Mohammed 6 The Status of Child Care Supports for Jamaican Families Kerida Scott McDonald 7 Raising Children with Disabilities in the Caribbean Marigold J Thorburn 8 The Impact of Parent Child Socialization on the Development of Conduct Disorder in Jamaican Male Adolescents Claudette Crawford Brown 9 Child Shifting A Survival Strategy for Teenage Mothers Pauline A Russell Brown Beverly Norville and Cheryl Griffith 10 Issues of Reunification of Migrant West Indian Children in the United Kingdom Elaine Arnold 11 Mental Health Issues and Family Socialization in the Caribbean Jacqueline Sharpe 12 Clinical Practice with Caribbean Immigrant Families in the United States The Intersection of Emigration Immigration Culture and Race David A Baptiste Jr Kenneth V Hardy and Laurie Lewis and 13 Toward an Integration Diverse Issues in Examining Caribbean Families Jaipaul L Roopnarine Each article contains references KB Representing the Family Deborah Chambers, 2001-06-26 Looking at how the family is represented by the media and by scrutinizing the manner in which it is regulated this book uncovers the ways in which academic research and welfare policy have colluded with political rhetoric and the popular media to re invent a mythical ideal family Representing the Family combines perspectives from a range of theories including media and cultural studies sociology and social history to show how certain types of family life are pathologised highlights the discrepancies between contemporary representations of the ideal family and lived experience compares the British experience with that of the United States and Australia Representing the Family provides a rich and an engaging illustration of the ways in which the media produce meaning It also demonstrates the ways in which critical social issues are played out across a range of discursive sites academia politics and public policy Transregional and Transnational Families in Europe and Beyond Christopher H. Johnson, David Warren Sabean, Simon Teuscher, Francesca Trivellato, 2011-08-01 While the current discussion of ethnic trade and commercial diasporas global networks and transnational communities constantly makes reference to the importance of families and kinship groups for understanding the dynamics of dispersion few studies examine the nature of these families in any detail This book centered largely on the European experience of families scattered geographically challenges the dominant narratives of modernization by offering a long term perspective from the Middle Ages to the twenty first century Paradoxically transnational families are to be found long before the nation state was in place Narratives of Exile and Return Mary Chamberlain, 2017-07-05 In this original and compelling book Mary Chamberlain explores the nature and meaning of migration for Barbadians who migrated to Britain and elsewhere It is a unique oral and social history based on life story interviews across three or more generations of Barbadian families Locating migration within the contemporary debate on modernity Narratives of Exile and Return highlights the continuing role of migration in shaping the culture and history of Barbados But it does more by providing post modern theorizing with concrete national and ethnic settings

Changing Family Values Gill Jagger, Caroline Wright, 2003-12-16 Changing Family Values offers a comprehensive introduction to contemporary debates and new research surrounding the family It explores how we define traditional family values and how these values are perceived as being underthreat in contemporary society Ranging across politics social policy law and sociology the contributors focus on the diverse realities of contemporary family life Issues covered include the recent backlash against single mothers lesbian and gay families and the law men s changing roles within the family the future of the nuclear family This book is ideal for courses covering the family a central topic in sociology and women s studies A Sociology of Family Life Deborah Chambers, 2015-02-11 New kinds of intimate relationships such as post divorce families co habiting couples friends as family and same sex unions are now commonplace This book explores the growing diversity of family life by presenting a comprehensive assessment of recent research and theory and foregrounds new thinking about family parenting childhood and personal life A Sociology of Family Life queries notions of moral decline by revealing a remarkable persistence of commitment and reciprocity across cultures in traditional and new family relations This insightful and innovative work examines factors such as gender race ethnic identity and new sexual lifestyles in relation to cultural customs government policies and social inequalities Global dimensions of intimate life are explored including the impact of population policies on fertility in several nations ethical dilemmas associated with reproductive technologies among different cultures interdependencies between rich and poor nations through the globalization of domestic care and transnational marriage strategies This book will be indispensable for students across the social sciences interested in change in intimate relations Selected by Choice as a 2013 Outstanding Academic Title Black Families in Therapy Nancy
